KEYSTONE VOTERS HEAR GOV. WILSON

ON G. O. P. FAMILY TROUBLES

Governor Declares Republican Party Has Not Satisfied the People Nor Even Themselves—Democratic Programme.

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 23.—Through rainy Pennsylvania, Governor Woodrow Wilson rode today, campaigning as he went and addressing thousands of people who crowded the wayside stations to see him. He arrived here at 6:12 o'clock tonight and participated in an umbrella parade to the armory, where a big mass meeting was held as a sequel to the official notification ceremonies earlier in the day, to the State ticket.

From the moment the Democratic candidate crossed the State line at Phillipsburg, N. J., and stopped at Easton, Delaware Water Gap, Portland, and Stroudsburg, there were umbrella-covered crowds to greet him. At Stroudsburg, the home of Representative A. Mitchell Palmer, National committeeman from Pennsylvania, the biggest crowd turned out. A band played and the Governor was given a lively demonstration.

It was getting along toward dusk when the Governor reached Stroudsburg, and as he leaned from the rail of the observation platform, the brakeman removed a rear light.

"They know we don't need any artificial light," said the candidate amid laughter, "and that there is no danger on the part of the Democratic candidate of a rear end collision, because nobody is in the same running class with it; so we are not afraid of any other train catching up with us.

"The interesting thing to the whole country," Governor Wilson continued, "is that the great State of Pennsylvania, that has so long seemed entirely devoted to the interests of one party and suspicious of the Democratic party—as if the Democrats didn't understand the financial and business interests of the country—is now showing a marked inclination to turn away from the party which has not satisfied the people, and entrust its confidence to the party which is now seeking a new set of policies, in order that the country as a whole may be served, because the Republicans are not even satisfying themselves. I don't like to talk about it because I belong to another family and it seems to be indelicate to talk about the affairs of a family I don't belong to.

"But evidently there is some family trouble, and some part of the family has a more tender conscience than the other and the part that has a tender conscience doesn't exactly know what it wants to do with it. But those of us who have for 16 years seen exactly what was coming in the year 1912, have no doubt where we are bound for. Because I want to call you to witness that the Democratic party has had substantially its present programme of returning the government to the people for more than 16 years. We are not doing anything new in the year 1912. What has happened is that the people are beginning to see that after all we were willing to stay out of power on the conviction that the day was coming when upon our own platform we could serve the interests of the people of the United States.

"Now we believe that there is not any part of the country where the business interests are better understood than in the State of Pennsylvania. But I want to remind you of this—about half the voters in the United States are Democrats and you don't suppose that inasmuch as Democrats are engaged in every kind of enterprise they are going to cut their own throats.

"One of the papers in Philadelphia said very wittingly the other day that if the Democrats committed economic murder on the industries of the country they would also commit economic suicide.'

"Mr. President, look this way," cried a voice from the far edge of the crowd to the left of the train platform.

"I am glad to say that I am not double faced," replied the Governor laughingly. "And I can't fire off on the swivel gun principle. You are good looking in both directions. I don't know in which direction I'm good looking in."

After the parade at Scranton, in which Governor Wilson rode in an automobile, waving to the cheering crowds, the candidate went to a hotel for dinner. Speeches at the armory, besides that by the Presidential nominee, were made by M. J. Lynett, editor of the Scranton Times, and delegate at large to the Baltimore convention; M. A. McGinley, candidate for Congress from Lackawanna county district; Representative A. Mitchell Palmer and W. H. Barry, candidate for State Treasurer.

Governor Wilson was given an ovation when he arose to speak. He said in part:

"I was speaking at the Springfield, Mass., primaries in the not so long ago. On the two previous days the President and the former President

W. C. NICHOLS IS TAKEN FROM JAIL

RESULT OF WILSON'S DEMAND

Gov. Guerra Acts Promptly on American Ambassador's Command—Practically Admits Innocence Of the Fruit Grower

Mexico City, Sept. 23.—W. C. Nichols, an American fruit grower, for whose release the American ambassador, Henry Lane Wilson, made a peremptory demand on Governor Matias Guerra, of the State of Tampaulipas, has been removed from the Tampico jail and placed in a hospital under guard. Nichols is ill and his life was in jeopardy as a result of his confinement.

This action was taken by order of the Supreme Court judge, who had previously ordered his re-imprisonment and it has relieved a situation which was fast becoming acute. Nichols was sentenced to eight years' imprisonment on the charge of having killed a Mexican bandit, and the court in reconsidering his case, disregarded the confession of a Mexican, who admitted that he was the slayer of the bandit.

Governor Guerra acted promptly on the demand of the American ambassador, and gave assurance by telegraph to Mr. Wilson that he would personally give the matter attention until it had been arranged to the satisfaction of the ambassador. In his message the Governor practically admits the innocence of Nichols, and says that if there has been an error in imposing sentence on the American, it was due to ignorance on the part of the judge rather than persecution, as charged by the ambassador.

Ambassador Wilson expressed himself as satisfied for the present, but will permit no unnecessary delay in the further proceedings which he is confident will result in freeing Nichols.

Pedro Lascurain, the Mexican foreign minister, has given Mr. Wilson an assurance that he will use his best efforts with the Governor and the court officials to secure an amelioration of the condition of the prisoner.

Senor Lascurain expressed his indignation at the action of the Supreme Court of Tampaulipas, in ordering the imprisonment again of Nichols, who previous to the appeal had been removed from the jail and kept under guard at a local hospital.

BEN VANN CONFESSES

Declares He Killed Oliver Layden to Save His Own Life

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 23.—In Elizabeth City, N. C., today Ben. F. Vann, accused of killing Oliver Layden, a 14-year-old boy last July, made a dramatic confession, but claimed that he was forced to kill the boy to save his own life.

Vann told a straight connected story. He claimed Layden, whom he said was larger and stronger than he, knocked him in a ditch and then drew a long knife from his pocket and attempted to stab him.

Vann says he fired at Layden while running backwards. He fired several times, he said, and when Layden fell he ran to him and found he was dead. He dragged the body through a wire fence and threw the pistol away. He says Layden abused him and threatened to kill him over a small amount of money the boy claimed he owed him.

During the cross-examination of Vann today, the prisoner told Solicitor Eringhaus that he was funny. The solicitor snatched a coat supposed to have been worn by Oliver Layden on the day he was killed, and shoving it under the nose of the accused, asked him if that looked funny.

Counsel for the defense objected to this proceedings and Judge Lane sustained the objection. A verdict is expected tomorrow night.

URGES ETERNAL VIGILANCE.

Clark Declares Over-Confidence is Only Thing Can Defeat Party.

Sedalia, Mo., Sept. 23.—"Signs of the time indicate that the only way the Democratic party can lose this year, either in State or National elections, is through gross carelessness or unwise over-confidence," said Champ Clark, Speaker of the National House of Representatives, in a speech here today, opening the Democratic campaign in Central Missouri.

Speaker Clark urged "eternal vigilance" on all members of the party, adding that "elections are won by votes in November rather than by shouts in September."

MINNEAPOLIS IS WINNER.

American Association Closed Very Prosperous Season Yesterday.

Chicago, Sept. 23.—The American Association today closed its regular playing season, with a game between Minneapolis and Milwaukee. Minneapolis, champions for the last two seasons, clinched this year's pennant also several days ago. President Thos. Chivington said that all in all the season just closed had been a prosperous one.

PRINCIPAL CHARACTERS INVOLVED IN THE MYSTERIOUS GIBSON CASE

Whether Burton W. Gibson, in his comfortable quarters in the Goshen Jail, preparing his defence to the charge of killing Mrs. Rosa M. Szabo, be guilty or innocent, when his trial takes place, he must view in retrospect a most extraordinary series of violent or unexplained deaths and one mysterious disappearance of persons with whose legal affairs he had to do.

CHARITIES CONVENTION OPENS

How to Best Care for Delinquent Children and Needy Families Theme Discussed at National Conference.

Washington, Sept. 23.—"How to best care for delinquent and dependent children and needy families was the theme of the papers and addresses at the meetings of the National Conference of Catholic Charities today. Three sessions of the convention were held simultaneously during the forenoon at the Catholic University, and this afternoon President Taft received the delegates at the White House and told them that their presence "suggested the passage we know from Scripture; The greatest of all is Charity'.'

President Taft said there was no greater work being done for mankind than charity.

The most experienced men and women in Catholic charity work in the country were speakers on today's programme. Mrs. Thaddeus J. Meder, of the Catholic Woman's League, of Chicago, discussing "necessary legislation," advocated an appropriation by Congress of $500,000 for the suppression of the White Slave traffic and condemned the teaching of sex hygiene in schools. "I am a bit old-fashioned," she said, "when it comes to eugenics; and I offer a prayer of thanksgiving every day that my boy has been told the story of life by his mother instead of by some disinterested school marm."

Miss Mary E Shinnick, probation officer of Cincinnati, said it were better for the State to support the home through the juvenile court or some charitable State agency and keep the mother and children together, than for the home to be broken up and the children placed in a charitable institution. She urged that the widows be pensioned by the State and allowed to care for their own children, as half a dozen States are already doing.

Edwin Mulready, executive officer and secretary of the Massachusetts Probation Commission, said that 40 States now had systems of probation for children, while 10 years ago only six States had such measures. He urged State aid for such work, and said that many children were in juvenile courts because of the misfortune of their parents or other conditions over which neither the children nor parents had any control. "The State must care for and educate these children for its own protection and safety," he said.

Robert Biggs, prominent in charity work at Baltimore, urged a more thorough investigation of charities, particularly in the large cities.

Patrick Malon, probation officer at Brooklyn, read a paper on "desertion and non-support" He urged that parochial schools of the Catholic Church could be more helpful than they are if special attention were given to the education of girls regarding the responsibilities of motherhood.

TAFT URGES HEALTH BUREAU

President Welcomes International Hygienic Congress—Public Health Problems Discussed at First Day's Session

Washington, Sept. 23.—A National Bureau of Health was strongly urged by President Taft in his address of welcome to the 15th International Congress of Hygiene and Demography and by Dr. Henry P. Walcott, of Massachusetts, president of the congress. The first day's session of the congress, which will continue throughout the week, was filled with discussion of importance in its relation to public health problems.

Dr. John H. Long, of Northwestern University Medical school, Chicago, told the delegates today that he had experimented with "poison squads" and had found no ill effects from the use of benzoate of soda and sulphate of copper. His experiments with benzoate of soda, he declared, had been practically duplicated by Dr. Russell H. Chittenden, director of the Sheffield Scientific School at Yale, who had reported similar results.

GEN. CAMPA CAUGHT IN U. S.

Mexican Rebel Leader and Staff Captured by American Officers Near Tucson—Says He's Tired Of Fighting

Tucson, Ariz., Sept. 23.—After a chase through Northern Sonora by Mexican Federal troops, following his raid on mining camps and the lines of the Southern Pacific Railroad, General Emilio P. Campa, the rebel leader, and his staff crossed the American line south of Tucson, and are now prisoners of the United States. After positive identification by Dr. Ruffo, a friend, Campa today admitted his identity and said he was tired of fighting. Dr. Ruffo was surgeon general for Madero in the previous revolution.

Campa was captured by United States Marshal C. A. Overlock, Sheriff Nelson and a deputy without resistence. He had sent two men into Tucson Saturday night to procure automobiles, but they were arrested and after questioning they told of the location of the remainder of their party of ten.

The rebel leader declared that he was surprised by the unexpected opposition he met at the hands of the Federals under Colonel Girone, who gave him a seven-hour battle at Altar. Hard pushed by the pursuing Federals and practically without ammunition, he decided to seek safety in the United States, with the faint hope that he might be able to get ammunition at Casas Grandes or Gila Bend, west of Tucson.

All the prisoners are being held pending orders from the Department of Justice.

OUTLAWS ARE ARRAIGNED.

Hillsville, Va., Sept. 23.—Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards, the mountain gunmen, were arraigned here today in the same court room where on March 14th, five lives were snuffed out in a shooting affray of which they are alleged to have been the ring leaders.

By consent of lawyers on both sides their trials were transferred to Wytheville, where two of their clan are sentenced to die and others got long term sentences. Edwards will be tried first, beginning October 6th for the murder of Commonwealth's Attorney Foster. Allen will be tried for the murder of Judge Massie, when Edwards' trial is over. The prisoners were returned to the Roanoke jail.

Cincinnati, Sept. 23.—The draft by the Detroit baseball team, of the American League, of Garden, from Roanoke, Va., has been cancelled, announcemeit of which was made today by the National Baseball Commission. This action was taken under the rule allowing the major league clubs to cancel drafts within five days after the opening of the drafting season.

PUT POSTMASTERS IN CIVIL SERVICE

DETAILS NOT WORKED OUT

The President's Act, Due to Petition, Will Relieve 36,038 From Uncertainty of Political Appointment—Long Favored It.

Washington, Sept. 23.—It was practically decided today that President Taft in the near future will issue an executive order placing all fourth class postmasters in the classified service. This order, relieving 36,038 postmasters from the uncertainty of political appointment, will be one of the most comprehensive and far-reaching as affecting the civil service, ever issued by a President of the United States.

That the President would take this step, his first act toward putting into practice his often expressed belief that all government officers below the grade of cabinet members, should be removed from the influence of politics and placed under the Civil Service, became practically certain late today, after a delegation of postmasters returning from the annual convention of their association at Richmond, had been received at the White House and by Postmaster General Hitchcock.

The visitors submitted a montser petition signed by about 20,000 postmasters, asking that they be placed in the classified service.

After discussing the matter briefly with the delegation, President Taft referred the executive committee of the association to Mr. Hitchcock for further consideration of the matter. Later the committee called upon the Postmaster General to discuss the subject with him.

In a few days Mr. Hitchcock will submit to President Taft a formal recommendation that the petition be granted, and the President is expected to act promptly and favorably upon the recommendation.

In the entire country there were 49,672 fourth-calss postmasters at the end of the last fiscal year. By executive order issued in July, 1908, President Roosevelt placed all the postmasters of the New England States, and of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin in the Civil Service—a total of 13,634. Those still without the service number 36,038.

While the details of the proposition have not been worked out, it is expected that the covering into the classified service of this great number of officials will be accomplished by the designation of the postmasters of groups of States, successively. It will require an immense amount of labor on the part of the Civil Service Commission, particularly, as well as on the part of the Postoffice Department.

Both the President and Postmaster General Hitchcock have recommended to Congress that all postmasters be covered into the classified service, and, so far as possible, the entire personnel of the postal service be removed from political influence. As to the first, second and third classes of postmasters, legislation by the Congress would be required to place them under civil service regulations, but the President now has authority under certain defined limitations of competency and efficiency, to put postmasters of the fourth class under the protection of the civil service rules.

President Taft told the delegation of postmasters at the White House today that if they realized the trouble their appointments caused they would agree with him that it would be best for all concerned to place them under the Civil Service.

The President expressed the hope that the feeling is growing in favor of putting all government servants on the basis of permanent tenure. If the appointments are regularly made by the Civil Service, he said, the appointees would sleep better, those upon whom falls the responsibility of making the appointment would sleep better, and all would have opportunity of giving the government more work.

"FIRE PREVENTION DAY"

Insurance Commissioner Asks For Observance of October 9th

Raleigh, N. C., Sept 23.—State Commissioner of Insurance James R. Young has written special appeals to the mayors of all the towns in North Carolina and to other municipal authorities to bestir themselves in bringing about an effective observance of "Fire Prevention Day" October 9th, which is the anniversary of the great Chicago fire. Commissioner Young is especially anxious for property owners to clear their premises of all "fire waste" material and have their flues and general fire and heating equipment overhauled with a view to guarding against fires as the Fall and Winter advance.

HADLEY WILL JOIN MOOSERS, SAYS T. R.

Teddy Sees Nothing of Governor, But Thinks He Will Come Across.

ATTACKS G. O. P. COMMITTEE

Joplin, Mo., Sept. 23.—Governor Herbert Hadley, of Missouri, in the opinion of Col. Roosevelt, as he expressed it today, will join the Progressive party in the National campaign.

"I not only hope, but believe," said Col. Roosevelt, "that Governor Hadley will yet decide to stand with us."

Col. Rosevelt saw nothing of the Governor during his trip through this State. When he went to St. Louis to speak at the beginning of his tour, the statement was published that he had received a letter from the Governor. The colonel would say nothing about it. Governor Hadley has already said he soon would make public a statement of his position.

Beginning the day in Kansas, Col. Roosevelt came into Missouri and spoke at Springfield and Joplin, with a number of short speeches from the train at other points. He attacked the Republican National Committee, saying it had forever separated the public from the Republican party and had "boarded up the party until you could not get into it with a jimmy."

He told the people in Speaker Champ Clark's home State that Mr. Clark had been beaten in the Democratic convention, although he had beaten Governor Wilson in the primaries.

In the crowd at Lamar there was a man with a huge banner bearing the words, "We want Taft, let well enough alone."

The banner attracted Col. Roosevelt's attention. Bending over the railing of his car he pointed to the man with the banner and said:

"Any man who supports the receiver of stolen goods stands on a level with the receiver of the stolen goods. He is a dishonest man, and is unfit to associate with honest men."

As the train drew out, Col. Roosevelt called to the crowd: "Good bye, honest men."

When the colonel reached Springfield he found another Taft banner and saw a number of men who were wearing Taft badges.

"I have noticed several Taft badges in your town," he said in his speech, "and they are the appropriate color of yellow. There never was a yellower performance than that of the Republican managers at the Chicago convention and the badges are just the right color. The man who puts on one of them shows that he has a yellow streak somewhere."

The colonel attacked the Republican National Committee in his speech at Joplin: "The Republican National Committee," he said, "is composed of 53 men, most of them shady."

"All of them," a man in the crowd shouted.

"Well, pretty nearly all," the colonel said. "There were just about enough of the other kind to save Sodom and Gomorrah." Col. Roosevelt left here for Oklahoma tonight.

SCHEPPS THE KEYNOTE.

Declared His Evidence Would Send Becker to the Chair.

Hot Springs, Ark., Sept. 23.—"My evidence will send Becker to the chair; don't I know it?"

This, in effect, was one of the declarations of Sam Schepps, Rosenthal murder witness, to Postmaster Fred E. Johnson, of Hot Springs, according to the testimony of Mr. Johnson tonight before special Commissioner [illegible].

Another declaration of Schepps, according to the postmaster, was in substance: "If Rosenthal had not been such a 'poacher' he would not have got himself in so bad. I don't want you fellows to think we killed a man of some account. Rosenthal deserved to be killed."

Johnson, who arrested Schepps here, said he talked to him almost five hours on August 10th. Schepps he said, begged not to be delivered to the police, then discussed graft, public officials, the causes leading up to the killing of Rosenthal and declared: "I am the keynote of the whole situation."

Becker, Johnson testified, was described by Schepps as a "grafter", one never satisfied and always urging an increased donation if a gambler showed prosperity.

C. H. Mosher another witness, tonight corroborated the testimony of previous witnesses as to Schepps' alleged assertion crediting to Becker a threat to kill Rosenthal if "the gang" did not and Rosenthal's connection with women and girls.

The hearing was finally adjourned late tonight.

Gilbert Hogaboom and Michael Berkholtz, the last witnesses heard, testified in accordance with statements made in affidavits presented early this evening by John W. Hart, counsel for Becker. District Attorney Whitman will leave tomorrow afternoon for New York. Mr. Hart also will leave tomorrow.

PLANNING NOVEL SPORTS

Riverside Park Boat and Country Club Soon to Be Organized

(Communicated.)

North America's eastern and most historic rivers might be quickly said to be the Saint Lawrence and Hudson, while certainly the Cape Fear, as history-making, scarcely has an equal on this continent. Notwithstanding the fact that for more than one hundred years the Cape Fear was considered the most historic river, naval stores were hauled down it, and ships of every nation lay at our wharves. Maury's Geography, in 1882, says that "Wilmington is the leading naval stores port of the world." This reputation it had borne for many, many years.

At no time has a racing shell (probably most famous at Henly, on the Thames, in England), been seen on our river. A coterie of athletic men, many of them holding records in the representative schools, universities and States have gotten themselves together and resolved that Brunswick Bay, three miles below the city, shall be the scene of excellent events, and it is hoped that during the Winter months it will be possible to get some of our champion Northern winning crews to come South and meet our crews. Among the membership is the strong oarsman who has got his stroke in the German navy, while Uncle Sam's navy has given us one of her splendid medium weight athletes who has pulled in many a race. Captain Metts, of the Wilmington Light Infantry, has signified his intention of associating himself with the men in organizing a country and boat club. Captain Metts will undoubtedly make an ideal cockswain, a position requiring a man having much of his makeup. The country club will prove an excellent adjunct to the Wilmington Light Infantry, and it is hoped to have an affiliation to this organization.

Every type of athletic sport not conflicting with the golf club will be fostered, golf only excepted. Among the organizers are a number of horsemen, and it is hoped that the game of polo will be played, as well as water polo.

The country club grounds will have an ideal site with its magnificent subsoil for polo fields, and we have every reason to believe that, just as Camden has become popular for Winter polo clubs, so Riverside Park can be given equal prominence.

In connection with these clubs, it is hoped to have thoroughly equipped training quarters on most modern lines, and to inculcate a spirit of love for the best athletic sports.

One of the organizers will probably go to Canada very soon and will bring back the rules and regulations of the Montreal Boat Club, and will receive suggestions from Cornell University's coach, Courtney, a man respected and revered for his wonderful winning crews the world over.

Applicants who have had either experience in athletics, or who desire to become proficient, and at the same time add zest to this part of the world, are gladly welcomed.

The Riverside Boat Club will have a temporary office at the Colonial Hotel, where applications may be sent, and its officers will be elected before very long.

EDDIE M'GOORTY WINS

Defeats Jack Harrison, English Middleweight Champion

New York, Sept. 23.—Eddie McGoorty, of Oshkosh, Wis., who claims to be the top-notcher among middleweights, added strength to his argument tonight when he made short work of Jack Harrison, champion of England, who holds the Lord Lonsdale belt. After knocking out Dave Smith, the Australian champion, in the first round at Madison Square Garden three weeks ago in the same ring, tonight he knocked out the British champion in two minutes 55 seconds.

The men weighed in at 6 P. M. at 160 pounds, but at the ringside McGoorty weighed 165 and Harrison 163. McGoorty opened up with a right and left to the face, then staggered the Englishman with a left hook to the jaw. Keeping his man continually on the defensive, he sent right and left blows to the head and after a smashing right to the face and a right upper cut under the chin, he hooked Harrison's jaw with his left, sending him down for a count of nine. The Englishman got up groggy and McGoorty, after landing three rights and three lefts to the head, with another left hook, put him down again for a count of nine. The same blow a few seconds later sent Harrison to the floor for the third time when he was counted out.

Mike Gibbons, the St. Paul middleweight, met Tommy Maloney, of this city, in a 10-round bout at the Garden tonight. It was Maloney's first appearance as a middleweight and the match appeared to be simply a boxing lesson with Gibbons as master. He only allowed Maloney to hit on sufferance and it looked as though the St. Paul boxer was holding back to avoid a knock out.

HIGH COST OF LIVING.

Bureau of Labor's Report Shows It is No Myth.

Washington, Sept. 23.—The most marked upward trend of the cost of living is disclosed in the Federal bureau of labor's report of an investigation of prices for the past ten years conducted in the important industrial centers of 32 States. Fifteen most important articles of food, as well as coal, comprising two-thirds of a workingman's needs were investigated. In many cities the investigators gathered statements of merchants on the cost of living and specimens of these are published in the report.

On June 15, 1912, the report shows, 14 of the 15 articles of food were higher than a year before, and 10 had advanced in the past 10 years more than 50 per cent. over the average retail price for the 10-year period, 1890-1899.

During the last decade prices of potatoes changed most and sugar the least. Their advances were 11.9 and 8.5 per cent., respectively. During the last year bacon, which decreased just one-tenth of one per cent. was the only one of the 15 principal articles of food that showed a decline in price, while nine of the 15 advanced more than 10 per cent., varying from 2.4 per cent for milk, to 18.6 per cent for round steak. Of the 15, only eggs, butter, milk and sugar were lower, but the price of three of these four is normally lower during Summer than during Winter.

BEACHEY DEFIES DEATH.

Daring Young Aviator the Sensation of Big Chicago Meet.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—Lincoln Beachey, in the most daring aerial stunts ever witnessed here, was the sensation of the closing programme of the International Aviation meet at Grant Park this evening. The aviator made such perilous dives and turns that spectators expected, a score of times, to see him dashed to his death. As a finale Beachey ascended to an altitude of 7,000 feet and suddenly twisted about, banked his plane until he turned it almost completely over, and did a series of marvelous downward spirals. Going back to nearly his former height, the aviator turned the machine perpendicularly downward and the biplane descended as though no hand was guiding it. Persons fled from the boxes and grandstand. Others covered their faces that they should not see his death. About 200 feet above the stand, Beachey suddenly put the machine on an even keel, skimmed over the heads of the spectators and made a perfect landing in the center of the field.

RED SOX WELCOMED

Boston Gives American League Champions Great Demonstration

Boston, Sept. 23.—The Boston Red Sox returned home from the West today as champions of the American League to one of the greatest welcoming demonstrations ever accorded an atheletic team in this city. Great crowds lined the miles of city streets through which the winners passed through in automobiles to the Boston Common, where the welcome was formally made. Business was temporarily stopped all along the line, while thousands of workers thronged the windows. Mayor John F. Fitzgerald presided, and gave the keys of the city to the team, no member of which owns Boston as his home. In common with the other speakers, who included District Attorney Pelletier and Sheriff Quinn, the mayor expressed the hope and belief that the Red Sox would be victorious in the world's series in October.

All the other players appeared and expressed their thanks for the welcome.

A. & M. FOOTBALL SQUAD.

First Scrimmage Saturday Afternoon. Men Showing Up Well.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

West Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 23.—Saturday the first scrimmage of the season at A. & M. was held in Riddick Athletic Field, which gave Coach Green a chance to size up the squad, and pick out some good men to fill the large number of vacancies caused by the graduation of so many of last year's 'varsity. On account of the warm weather only two quarters were played, during which the 'varsity were only able to score one touchdown and goal on the scrubs, although they were pretty close to the scrubs' line when the scrimmage ended. However, this does not speak badly of the 'varsity as the Red and White have an exceptionally good bunch of scrubs this year, and there are some men playing with the scrubs who will push somebody pretty hard for places on the first team.

During this scrimmage two sets of backfield men were used, the first consisting of Capt. Cool, who will play quarter this year; Spencer, half, and Anthony, fullback, all monogram men, and are showing up well. Jaynes of last year's scrubs is doing well at half, and is a hard line hitter, with about 170 pounds avordupois. The second set consisted of Page, quarter; Hassell, right half, and Parker, fullback; all having played on last year's scrubs; and Hudson, a new man, left half. Page is showing up exceptionally well at quarter, being very fast, and a good broken field runner. Hassell at right half is likely to prove a valuable man to the Red and White before the season is over, as he is very fast, and a good ground gainer. He weighs about 160 pounds. Hudson also did some good work at left half, and generally made some nice gains when given the ball. Only one line was used for the 'varsity, and every man did well. Morton, of last year's scrubs, weighing about 185 pounds, played center; Sykes, left guard; Hurtt, left tackle, and Phillips, left end; the three last mentioned all being of last year's 'varsity. Terry, a new man, played right guard. He weighs about 200 pounds, and plays his position well. Harper played right tackle, and Jeffreys, right end, these two men being of last year's scrub team.

The following men of the scrubs did good work in the scrimmage, and will push the other men hard for places on the first team before the season is over: Huntley, center; Rawlings, tackle; Porter, guard; Nichols, Seifert and Rice, ends; Osborne, quarter; Katz, Davis and Aycock, halves, and Sumner, fullback.

THE $55,000 IS RETURNED.

Money Which Mysteriously Disappeared Comes Back—Arrest Expected.

Pensacola, Fla., Sept. 23.—As a result of the mysterious return to the First National Bank some time last night of the $55,000 stolen while being delivered to the Louisville & Nashville pay car at Flomaton several days ago, a conference was held tonight between officials of the bank and private detectives and special agents investigating the robbery.

At a late hour it was stated that an arrest was momentarily expected.

The package containing the money was in the original wrapping as made up by the bank employes, it is said, and was enclosed in a newspaper.

It was found this morning lying against the grating of the back door of the bank by the negro janitor, who first thought it a pair of old shoes. This indicates, according to the officials, that some one with previous knowledge, had prepared in advance the dummy package containing magazine pages which was found in place of the money when the shipment was opened in the L. & N. pay car. The rear of the bank is enclosed by a brick wall about five feet high and the door at which the money was placed was only about five feet from this wall. On Saturday night Assistant Cashier W. N. Roberts received this telephone message at his house from an unknown party: "You will find what you lose at the bank's back door."

The bank cashier thought some one was attempting a practical joke on him and refused to go out in the rain to the bank to investigate.

ATTEMPT FRUSTRATED.

Three Men Tried to Steal Wilson's State Flag.

Sea Girt, N. J., Sept. 23.—Governor Wilson was alone in his study about 1 o'clock this morning reading a book which he had taken up after everybody else had gone to bed when three men in an automobile started to steal the big State flag which flies from a 75-foot pole in front of the house.

The thieves might have taken the flag for all Governor Wilson knew had not Dudley Malone, of New York, who was spending the night at the Governor's house, been awakened by the automobile. As the men began to loosen the halyards Mr. Malone raised his window and yelled. Immediately they turned and fled.

Accumulated correspondence kept Gov. Woodrow Wilson busy during the forenoon today. In the afternoon he was to start by automobile for Trenton to board his private car at 1:40 P. M., and leave for Scranton, where he will open the Pennsylvania campaign tonight.

The Governor will vote in the primaries at Princeton tomorrow and then start for New England for a three days' trip.

STILL UNSETTLED

Meeting to Prepare for World's Series Will Find Race Undecided

New York, Sept. 23.—The meeting of the National Baseball Commission, scheduled here for Wednesday to arrange for the world's series with the idea that by that time it would be definitely known what clubs would be contenders, probably will find the National League race still undecided.

The New York Giants now need four games to assure them the National League pennant and the only way they can win that assurance before the National Commission meets will be combination of victories over Pittsburg today and tomorrow and the double defeat of Chicago by Philadelphia at the same time.

With little probability of such a break it may be that the National Commission will further delay definite arrangements for the world's series.

NATIONAL LEAGUERS, WHO WILL PLAY RED SOX FOR WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP

WHITEVILLE AFFAIRS.

Evangelistic Meetings—Judge Clark to Speak—Personal Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., Sept. 21.—The pastor, Rev. J. F. Poteat, is holding a series of evangelistic services at the Baptist church this week. The meetings are being largely attended, and there have been a number of conversions.

Prof. W. R. Smithwick, superintendent of the graded school, reports that there have been enrolled 260 students so far, and that the prospects for a successful school year are very bright.

Dr. W. Ross Davis has recently moved into his beautiful new house in the eastern part of town. In connection with his dental practice the doctor manages to do considerable farming, and has made a success of both vocations.

At a meeting of the literary society of the Whiteville graded school Friday afternoon, the following officers were elected for the new year: President, Hubert Heater; vice president, Miss Virginia Smith; secretary, Miss Mabel Maultsby; treasurer, Simms Williamson; censor, Rene Lewis; members of programme committee, James Powell, Lucile McKinnon, Dan Jolly, Margaret High and Lois FormyDuvall.

Mr. J. L. Memory, who has been in the mercantile business here for many years, is selling out his stock of goods, and announces that on October 1st he will retire from mercantile life. He expects to devote his time hereafter to his farming and dairy interests here.

Messrs. David J. Lewis and Homer L. Lyon, members of the Whiteville bar, attended Bladen court at Elizabethtown this week.——Mr. James Schulken leaves this afternoon for Deland, Fla., where he will enter Stetson University.——Mr. J. R. Williamson, Democratic nominee for the Legislature, has been spending several days at Florence, S. C., where he went to have an operation. His condition is not serious and he will return home soon.

The Bull Moosers have adopted a platform and have also put out a full county ticket. Columbus, however, is overwhelmingly Democratic, and will do her share towards rolling up a substantial majority for the people's party in November.

Judge Walter Clark writes that he will address the voters of this country at Whiteville some time in October. Governor Kitchin has already spoken here, and his friends claim that he made many votes by his bitter denunciation of Senator Simmons. Even his most optimistic friends, however, recognize the fact that Simmons has the larger following in this county, but they are hoping that many of them may be changed between now and the November election. But there is little prospects of there being many defections from the Simmons ranks, and many predict that with the coming of the November frosts his strength will be materially increased.

STRAUS FOR COMPROMISE

Progressive Candidate May be Presented to N. Y. Convention

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 23.—The name of Oscar Straus, gubernatorial candidate of the Progressive party, may be presented to the Republican State Convention which meets here wednesday, as its candidate for Governor. Senator Josiah T. Newcomb, of New York, upon his arrival tonight, authorized a statement in which he declared that if necessary he would present Mr. Straus' name.

This declaration, which created discussion among the early delegates, came close on the heels of a telegram from Mr. Straus in reply to a telegraphic inquiry as to whether he would "accept such nomination, or would your acceptance be conditional on the platform or other contingent considerations?"

Mr. Straus replied to this inquiry: "I appeal to the people of all parties to give me their support upon my public record and upon the covenant in my platform with the people of the Empire State."

Delegates who favor the candidacies of former Speaker James W. Wadsworth, Job E. Hedges, former Congressman William S. Bennett, Frederick W. Stevens and District Attorney Charles S. Whitman, of New York, openly declared tonight that Mr. Straus' telegram made it obligatory upon the Republican convention to adopt the Progressive party platform if they nominated Mr. Straus. Other delegates, however, were not so certain that it would be necessary to adopt all the planks of the Progressive party if Mr. Straus were named.

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 23.—R. L. Stephenson, of Atlanta, was seriously injured Saturday when he fell through the elevator shaft of the Gresham Hotel, now under construction. He fell from the sixth story to the cellar. He is a representative of an elevator company and was inspecting the work. The extent of his injuries cannot yet be determined.

Columbia is to have a German school, colonists furnishing the land and building and the home, government sending out and maintaining the teachers.

REV. E. B. CARR'S LETTER

Special Communion Services With Black River Group of Churches

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Atkinson, N. C., Sept. 23.—It is with pleasure that we look forward to our special communion services during the month of October, at each of the churches in the Balck River group. We look upon these services as, indeed, a feast of Spiritual things, when our Spiritual Man is a gain refreshed and revived, a time when we are drawn very feelingly near our Blessed Saviour, whose last dying request was, "Do this in remembrance of Me."

These services will begin at Black River church on Saturday before the first Sunday in October, at which time we expect to preach two sermons, and we extend pressing invitation to all the surrounding community to come and enjoy the day with us. We ask all people who can do so, to bring dinner with them, and we will have an old-time spread dinner at the church. We ask all the good old-time Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterians to lay aside your work on this day and show that you love the Lord Jesus Christ by being present at these services. You can help us preach, you can help us sing, you can help us pray, you can help us work for Jesus every day. If there be persons in the community who are not Christians, come, for you are welcome, for the Lord Jesus Christ died to save you; He is your only friend and redeemer.

This same programme will be had at each of the other churches in this group on Saturday before each respective preaching Sunday in October at Caswell, Harmony and South River.

Yours very sincerely,
E. B. CARR.

JNO. P. WHITE TESTIFIES.

Declares W. Va. Miners Are Groaning Under Oppressive Methods.

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 23.—President John P. White, of the United Mine Workers of America, late today testifying before the State Mining Investigation Commission, ridiculed statements that the international organization had an agreement with Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Pennsylvania coal operators to organize the West Virginia miners in the interest of outside States, to the detriment of the coal industry of West Virginia. He declared that the miners of West Virginia were groaning under oppressive methods for many years.

Alluding to the fact that he had been refused permission to discuss the question from the miners' side before the conference last Saturday, which broke up, because he was a nonresident of the State, he said:

"No State can lock itself up in its own confines and decide such momentous questions. We have only one motive, and that is just as lofty in West Virginia as in any other State. The West Virginia miners have appealed to the miners in convention to help relieve the conditions prevailing in the coal fields of West Virginia, and we are bound in our preamble or charter to help these miners."

OIL TRUST HEARING.

Standard Still Assigning Territory to Refineries, It is Said.

New York, Sept. 23.—The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey is still assigning sales territory to oil refineries of its former subsidiaries outside of its own territory, according to testimony given today at the hearing of the Waters-Pierce-Standard Oil litigation.

Kenneth Adams, assignment clerk of the New Jersey Company, so testified when asked a series of questions by counsel for the Waters-Pierce Company in line with the latter's contention that there is no real competition among the various Standard Oil companies.

"Do you receive stock reports of any refinery other than refineries of the Standard Oil of New Jersey?" Adam was asked.

"Not that I know of", was the reply.

"Have you assigned stations or territory to refineries outside of the territory of the New Jersey company?"

"Yes," said the witness. He promised to furnish a record of these assignments made since the dissolution of the corporation.

Specific instances of the assignment of sales territory to refineries not owned by the New Jersey company were furnished by E. G. Barber, assistant domestic sales agent of the company. Barber said the sales at Camden, Trenton and Phillipsburg, N. J., was assigned to refineries of the Atlantic Refining Company, of Pennsylvania, one of the subsidiaries of the former trust. In none of these cities did the Atlantic Refining Company compete with the New Jersey company in the sale of oil as far as the witness knew.

The assignment of these sales stations to the Atlantic company's refineries was the same before dissolution, the witness conceded, but he declared that the stations bought their oil from the Atlantic refineries now simply because the rates for the transportation of oil to the refineries of the New Jersey company were higher than the Atlantic company. Barber professed ignorance of the prices at which the New Jersey company purchased oil of the Atlantic company for sale in Phillipsburg. The contention of the Waters-Pierce interests is that as before the dissolution, the Atlantic refineries sells at cost to the New Jersey company.

Although the New Jersey company has a refinery at Bayonne, N. J., it sold no oil in Staten Island just across the Kill Von Kull, the witness said. Mr. Fordyce then indicated that Staten Island was the territory of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.

MAJ. STEDMAN BUSY.

Conducting a Vigorous Campaign for Democracy in Fifth.

High Point, N. C., Sept. 23.—Major Charles Manly Stedman, ex-Lieutenant-Governor of North Carolina, candidate for Democratic Governor in 1888, ex-president of the North Carolina Bar Association, and now a member of Congress, talked to the citizens of High Points a few evenings ago, and today at 1 o'clock he speaks in Danbury, the county seat of Stokes, and in the evening of tomorrow, Tuesday, at 8 o'clock, he meets the citizens of Mebane in Alamance county. His itinerary, as outlined by Chairman J. Elmer Long, extends over six weeks and carries the Major into every county in the district, the two last meetings being Salisbury, Thursday, October 31, and Graham, Saturday, November 2.

A good example doesn't scare the public away from him much more than the smallpox would.

The Fall Season

Is now here, and Geo. O. Gaylord has been working hard to get ready for it. I have spent ten days in the Northern Market together with Miss Alma Brown, selecting new goods for the store. We will have our Fall Opening October 1st, 2nd and 3rd—being Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

We will also add to our regular Millinery Opening a big display of Ladies' and Misses' Coat Suits.

We have just received this week a splendid assortment of new Ginghams for School Dresses. We are selling nice plaid Scotch Ginghams for 8 and 10 cents a yard; regular 12½c. and 15c. goods.

We have also received a big stock of New Shoes, and have specially a nice assortment to show the boys and girls for School Wear. Our prices are cheaper on shoes than elsewhere, and the assortment is larger.

In our Dress Goods and Silk Department we have just received a beautiful black Taffeta Silk a yard wide for 75c. per yard. We have all colors and widths in silks from 35c. 35c. a yard to $1.00 a yard.

Our Coat Suit Department is in the hands of experienced help, and we have an unusually large assortment of Coat Suits to show, and we are going to sell Suits cheaper this year than we have ever sold them. We are showing a beautiful line of Serge Suits in blue, black and brown. They are worth $13.12 apiece at our regular selling price; if we can fit you up in one of those Suits without any alteration, we can sell it to you for $9.98. We have lots of other Suits that we are making special prices on. We will sell you a nice Misses' Suit as low as $7.50, and a beautiful Middy Blouse Suit, all wool goods, at $5.50.

The Big Store is piled full of new goods, and we want your business. Guaranteed to save you money on your purchase and give you premiums free.

STATE BUILDING AND LOANS

Annual Report About Ready—Railroads Submit Plans for Union Depot at Maxton—Bickett On "Democratic Ticket"

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 23.—Hon. J. R. Young, commissioner of insurance, has his annual report on North Carolina Building and Loan Associations in the press. It shows 115 associations in the State, 100 of them having $8,457,559 assets, a gain of $975,272 over the year previous. The report declares that the building and loan interests in the State are developing splendidly. He advocates some steps that will provide some similar loan system for farmers whereby farms can be purchased and aid extended in making crops. He believes the system with some modifications can be applied with thorough success.

The Seaboard Air Line and Atlantic Coast Line railroad companies today submitted to the Corporation Commission detail plans for a $10,000 union passenger station at Maxton, in compliance with a recent order of the Commission. The station is to be almost an exact reproduction of the new station at Sanford that was built by order of the Commission some months ago. It is to be of brick, with tile roof and will have ample waiting room, baggage and other appointments and all conveniences. Work on the new station is to begin at once.

State Supt. of Public Instruction Joyner, Dr. D. H. Hill, president of the A. & M. College, and members of the Farm Life School Board of Craven county, are just back from Baltimore and Washington where they inspected the Baltimore County Farm Life School at Sparks and conferred with the educational authorities at Washington with a view to getting all the points possible that can be used in establishing the Craven County Farm Life School, the first to be provided in this State under the act of the last Legislature extending State aid. Representing the Craven county board on the trip were S. M. Brinson, A. D. Ward and D. P. Whitfield. It is not expected that the Craven school will be ready to open before the Fall of 1913.

Insurance Commissioner Young has received an invitation which he will accept to deliver an address before the National Association of Local Fire Insurance Agents to be in session at Atlanta October 15th.

Hon. T. W. Bickett, Attorney General, is out in a card protesting against the stringent construction that the State Democratic Executive Committee has put on "Democratic tickets," as restricting the participance in the primary for United States Senator. He insists that an elector should be required to vote the straight Presidential, Congressional, State and legislative tickets but that, having done this, an elector should not have his vote in the Senatorial primary challenged because he did not vote for some certain township constable or other minor candidate. He believes that the action of the committee will greatly hamper the efforts of the campaign workers in this campaign in seeking to win converts from the divided ranks of the Republican party. There were many members of the committee who entertained much the same view that Mr. Bickett expresses, but there were numerous strong and, in fact, insistent arguments that Democratic candidates for county and other local offices would surely resent it if the committee singled them out to be scratched with impunity.

Dr. O'Kelly, of the First Baptist church, and Rev. H. M. North, of the Edenton Street Methodist church, conducted the funeral service for the funeral of little Saide Lee, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles U. Harris Sunday morning. There were numerous and very beautiful floral tributes.

Sunday night two series of special revival services began in Raleigh. One is at Edenton Street Methodist church, Rev. H. M. North, pastor, in which Rev. H. A. Humble, of Laurinburg, is delivering the special sermons. At Tabernacle Baptist church the special minister is Rev. C. B. Waller, pastor of the First Baptist church, at Asheville.

Charters were issued today for the following new corporations:

The United Motor Charlotte Co., of Charlotte, capital $3,000 by J. H. Ham, J. H. Ross, W. S. Boyd and Ernest McCallum, for automobiles and automobile supplies.

The Miller-Oates Real Estate and Insurance Co., of Charlotte, capital $50,000, by Paul E. Miller, J. B. Oats and J. A. Darwin.

The Fayetteville Supply Co., of Fayetteville, capital $25,000 authorized and $1,150 subscribed by W. H. Marsh, T. J. Purdee, A. A. McKethan and others.

The State Department of Insurance has received notice that the North Carolina policies in the Empire Surety Co. have been re-insured in the National Surety Co., making the insurance perfectly good, Commissioner Young says.

A special call for a copy of the special bulletin by North Carolina State Agronomist Burgess on "Influence of Types of Soil on Plant Life," came from Norway today. Many foreign countries have heretofore secured copies from the North Carolina Department through special request for them.

Col. Wescott Robertson, of High Point, is here urging upon Governor Kitchin that he grant a pardon for Dr. Vestal, the High Point physician, serving 15 years sentence for malpractice through performing a criminal operation on a young woman. Col. Robertson says the pardon is being urged on the ground that Dr. Vestal is a reformed man, his misdeeds being due to the "dope habit" which the prison authorities say he has completely thrown off now. The pardon is recommended by the trial judge, and by numerous Guilford county and High Point officials and the petition for pardon has over 300 sibners. Col. Robertson says Solicitor Gattis did not actually recommend the pardon, being of the opinion that a Governor ought not to put a solicitor in this attitude. However, he gave a letter to Col. Robertson stating the facts in the case which is considered even stronger from him that an actual recommendation would be.

The Blackburn Garage and Motor Supply Co., of Goldsboro, is chartered with $25,000 capital by H. C. Smith, M. H. Allen and others.

FRATERNITY INITIATES.

Those Who Have Joined Greek Letters at the University.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Chapel Hill, N. C., Sept. 21.—The regular annual initiation of the Greek Letter fraternities at the University was held here this week. A large number of the alumni of the different fraternities came up to participate in the mystic rites of their chapters. On account of the recent "12-hour" ruling of the faculty, the number of men taken in by the different chapters was cut down to a comparatively small percentage. This ruling was made with the intention of raising the standard of scholarship among the fraternity men. While the fraternites have been by no means noticeably deficient in regard to their scholastic standing, the new and higher standard set by the faculty will tend to raise the scholarship to a truly commendable degree. The following men were initiated into the fraternities:

Phi Delta Theta—Tom E. Gilman, Jacksonville, N. C.; Paul C. Brantley, Wilson, and Robert E. L. Cook, Jr., Tarboro. Affiliate—Henry Meeks, Nashville, Tenn.

Zeta Psi—Fred Manning and Austin Carr, Durham; Allen Mebane, Spray, and C. T. Smith, Scotland Neck.

Beta Theta Pi.—M. L. McCorkle and J. R. Kenyon, Newton; Henry Graves, Carthage, and Henry Foust, Greensboro.

Delta Kappa Epsilon—Philip Woolcott, Raleigh; R. D. Pruden, Jr., Edenton; R. L. Thorpe, Jr., Rocky Mount; and B. F. Paty, Tullahoma, Tenn. Affiliate—D. R. Harris, Williams College, Mass.

Sigma Nu—R. W. Cantwell, Wilmington; Wiggie Stockard, Reidsville; L. A. Harper, Greenville, and A. C. Emerson, Wilmington.

Kappa Sigma—G. L. Dortch, Goldsboro; Fred Gray, Wadesboro; T. L. Michael, Canton, and W. D. Heath, Rock Hill, S. C.

Alpha Tau Omega—Baldwin Maxwell, Charlotte; Allen Moore, Washington; W. O. Huske and E. J. Lilly, Jr., Fayetteville, and Harvey Ward Tarboro.

Kappa Alpha—W. C. Walke, Avoca. Affiliates—J. A. Hurdle, William and Mary; W. C. Anderson, Trinity.

Phi Chi (Med.)—D. Biggers.

Among the alumni and visitors who were here for initiations were:

Sigma Nu—Willie Parsley, Henry Smith, Horace Johnson, Tom Moore, Jesse Milliken, L. J. Poisson, Henry Constable, Johnson Smith, John Harvey, William Grimsley and F. J. Poisson, from A. & M.; Kappa Alpha: Ike Boykin; Delta Kappa Epsilon, Gus and Jere Zollicoffer, H. L. and B. N. Perry, Will Belk, George Wood, Frank Barker and Gus Graham; Beta Theta Pi, Dick Stockton; Pi Kappa Alpha, T. S. Royster and W. W. Faulkner; Zeta Psi, Bob Winston, L. N. Morgan, John and Jim Manning, W. T. Joyner, Dolph Mangum and Hugh Thompson; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, John Tillett, Earl Crosswell, Stahle Linn, W. M. Jones Tom Guthrie, D. R. Murchison, Monk Hanes, W. J. Long, George Clark, Alex Worth, Alex. Sprunt, A. M. McKoy; Phi Delta Theta, E. H. Yelverton, Ike London, J. A. Wood; Kappa Sigma, F. G. Fetzer, Kid Smith, Eugene Barnhardt; Alpha Tau Omega John McLean, Lee Horton, Kenneth Burgwyn, Albert Stewart Sumner Burgwyn, Cameron McRae.

S. C. PROBE BEGINS TODAY

Committee Will Begin Investigation of Primary Irregularities

Spartanburg, S. C., Sept. 23.—A sub-committee of the State Democratic Executive Committee will meet here at noon tomorrow to begin an inquiry into the charges of fraud and irregularity in the State primary of August 27th, when on the face of the returns Governor Cole L. Blease was renominated over his two opponents by a majority of 3,000 votes out of a total vote of more than 140,000.

Governor Blease, with his attorneys and his campaign manager, arrived in the city this afternoon and will remain during the time the committee is in session. The chairman of the sub-committee, W. F. Stevenson, of Cheraw, is expected to arrive tomorrow morning.

In this county a committee has been at work for the last week investigating charges of fraud and its finding will be reported tomorrow. Greenville county will also submit a report from a committee that has been at work in that county. It is reported that detectives have been at work in Greenville county and that as a result of their activities sensational developments are expected.

Judge Jones, one of the candidates in the recent election, will be represented by attorneys tomorrow, but will not be present, as was expected.

COTTON PICKER AT WORK

Price-Campbell Machine to Be At Laurinburg This Week

Aberdeen, Sept. 23.—It may be of interest to note that the Price-Campbell cotton picker will be at work, picking cotton in the fields on the plantations of Mr. Bostick and Mr. McEachern, near Laurinburg, Monday and Tuesday of this week, September 23rd and 24th. The operations of the machine will be watched with interest by a large number of planters and others who are anxious to see it in action.

DUNN GRADED SCHOOLS.

Opened With Increased Attendance—Other News Notes of Interest.

Dunn, N. C., Sept. 23.—The city graded school opened this morning with an increased attendance of 74 pupils over the opening date last year, and taking into consideration that the building is undergoing extensive repairs and being enlarged, the management is very much pleased with the attendance for the first day. Four large rooms are being added and with a modern heating plant which is about complete, Dunn will have one of the most modern and up-to-date school buildings in this part of the State.

Your correspondent made mention a few days ago that Dunn had a record-breaking day on the local cotton market, when 335 bales were sold on last Saturday week. But last Saturday has eclipsed all records past and future, for a while, anyway, when 502 bales were weighed between the suns. The crop is short, but it all seems to be opening at once and the farmers seem afraid to risk the price.

A case of a good deal of local interest was tried in the recorder's court here this morning. Several weeks ago Deputy Sheriff W. T. Monds had an altercation with a Syrian named Monso about some rent which Monds claimed was due him. Monds shot Monso in the leg and hip. The case has been postponed several times, but was tried this morning, resulting in the conviction of Monds for assault with a deadly weapon. Judge W. S. O'B. Robinson appeared for the State with a local attorney, and his speech to the court was very much enjoyed by the audience.

Mr. Lorman C. Dupree, the popular drug clerk for Hood & Grantham, surprised his friends last Wednesday by announcing when he came down to the store that he and Miss Lilly Mae Wade had been married the night before. These young people have been sweethearts for a long time, but the marriage was quite a surprise to their friends, as they had kept the secret of their engagement and it was known only to a few. The contracting parties are both orphans, their parents having died several years ago. Mr. Dupree's father left him some very valuable town and country property but the young man is taking a course in pharmacy, having spent one year at Chapel Hill. Miss Wade is very popular in Dunn social circles.

In the death of Mrs. G. W. Massengill, which occurred in the lower part of Johnston county last Sunday several Dunn citizens are made sad. Mrs. Massengill was the mother of Mrs. Eldreze Lee, Mrs. John A. McKay and Mr. P. T. Massengill, of Dunn, and of Mr. Kemp Massengill, of Four Oaks. Mrs. Massengill was about 77 years old and was one of the leading women of her community.

Mrs. Campbell, mother of Prof. J. A. Campbell, of Buie's Creek Academy, died in Raleigh Saturday and was buried at Buie's Creek, yesterday in the old family burying ground.

Rev. R. B. John, presiding elder of this district, preached here last night, filling the appointment of Rev. J. H. Shore, the regular pastor, who is aiding in a revival meeting at Fayetteville this week.

HEARING WAS STORMY

Two Witnesses Found Who Heard Schepps Exculpate Becker

Hot Springs, Ark., Sept. 23.—After a stormy day in which District Attorney Whitman, of New York, was called a "liar" and a "shrimp," the hearing to ascertain what Sam Schepps told local persons concerning the Rosenthal murder case when he was held here as a witness, brought out what the defense claims is important testimony.

Just before the hearing was resumed tonight, John W. Hart, attorney for Police Lieutenant Charles Becker, announced he had found two witnesses who will swear to statements made by Schepps exculpating Becker. It is understood District Attorney Whitman will interpose no objection to the witnesses, Gilbert Hogaboom, a political leader of Hot Springs, and Michael Bergoltz, of Argena.

As a preliminary to the calling of the witnesses Mr. Hart gave the District Attorney copies of affidavits sworn to by Hogaboom and Bergoltz. The affidavit of Hogaboom set forth:

Schepps said that he (Rosenthal) would turn on his best friend and that he ought to have been bumped off long ago and would have if nothing had happened. He did not say what this something was. He said the gamblers did not like him (Rosenthal) because he would turn on his best friends. Schepps further said one big mistake that was made was to leave the number on the car.

Bergoltz avers in affidavits: "I asked him why they killed the poor fellow Rosenthal, and he said: 'Mike, you have no idea what a dirty dog he turned out to be at the last of it;' that he had a place on Second avenue and had a bunch of gunmen hanging around there and the gang wanted to kill most any one around there. Sam said that Rosenthal wanted to have Louie Kaudman killed."

A. B. HAMNER NAMED.

Nominated for Congress by Fifth Virginia District Republicans.

Roanoke, Va., Sept. 23.—The Fifth District Republican Convention in session at Rocky Mount today, nominated A. B. Hamner, of Charlotte county, as its candidate for Congress from that district to oppose Judge E. W. Saunders, Democrat.

The attendance at the convention was exceedingly small, owing to heavy rains. Mr. Hamner was nominated without opposition. The convention passed no resolutions of endorsement.

Five members were elected to serve on the State Republican Committee.

All Sores Are Not Cancerous

While all Old Sores are not cancerous in their nature, every slow healing ulcer shows a degenerated condition of the blood. Virulent impurities in the circulation produce angry, discharging ulcers, while milder and more inert germs are usually manifested in the form of indolent sores or dry, scabby places. Efforts to heal an old sore with external applications always result in failure because such treatment does not reach the blood, and the ulcer will continue to eat deeper into the surrounding flesh as long as a polluted circulation discharges its impurities into it. S.S.S. heals old sores of every nature by purifying the blood. It goes to the fountain-head of the trouble and drives out the germ-producing poisons and morbid impurities which prevent the place from healing. Then a stream of rich, nourishing blood, which S. S. S. creates, causes a perfect and natural knitting together of all flesh fibres, making a thorough and permanent cure. The sore does not "come back" when S. S. S. has made a cure, because its source has been destroyed. Book on sores and ulcers and medical advice free.

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the
WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC.,
Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates, or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Tuesday, September 24, 1912.

There is no such thing now as a straight Republican—not since the G. O. P. elephant took all the kinks out of the Bull Moose at Chicago.

The Columbia State's Woodrow Wilson campaign fund now foots up $5,000. South Carolina Democrats seem to be united—on Wilson.

A dispatch says Ty Cobb shook hands with Governor Wilson. Everybody higher up seems to be willing to welcome the Governor into the ranks.

The high cost of living does not hit the man who can afford it. It gets next to the man who can't earn enough to meet the most ordinary expenses.

Americans who boast of their business ability, ingenuity and skill, ought to be ashamed to ask the government to tax the people to make their enterprises successful.

Wilson is now the target of the Republican and Bull Moose press. That is because he proposes to break the hold of tariff beneficiaries on the throats of the people.

It is reported that J. Pierpont Morgan refuses to express a preference for President as between Taft and Roosevelt. His silence is not at all complimentary to Taft.

As between Taft and Roosevelt and Republican and Bull Moose Congressmen, committed alike to protection, the special interests have three chances to win over the people.

Everybody is going to vote for a Democratic administration at Washington because it is right, even if there are 60,000 postoffices which will need some attention when we get the rascals out.

In a divorce suit at Minneola, N. Y., the court advised a man and wife to "live apart for a month, with the hope of a reconciliation." In the meantime, who will guarantee that they won't get stuck on taking further time to consider the matter?

The man who sells his vote to the Republicans in this election won't be able to hold on to his wad. He will pay it out in high prices for something for his family. He would save money by not selling his vote to special interests can get their money back out of him.

President Taft proposes to take care of his sore toe and stay right on at Beverly. While the other candidates are swatting Republicanism, he is keeping his mouth shut. Probably he does not care to waste time attempting to dispute the corroborated charges against the party which aids privilege in getting "theirs" out of the pockets of the people.

If you do not send in a dollar or more for the Star's Democratic campaign fund, it will make you have the appearance of wishing to vote for Wilson free of charge. We will go to the polls in six weeks from today, but we can do something now by making a contribution that will aid in presenting the people's cause on the stump. The Star will receive and forward all funds handed in or sent by mail.

The Republican party claims credit for guaranteeing prosperity for special interests. The guarantee is made good by taxing the masses, and that is precisely why the masses are up against it. The masses who are up against it are howling because they know they are being exploited to carry out the Republican guarantee. They are going to vote the Democratic ticket and thus strike at the hand which is fumbling in their pockets.

THE PANAMA CANAL.

Colonel Goethals, who is in charge of the construction of the Panama Canal, has fixed October 15th, 1913, as the date for the first ship to pass through the great waterway which will link the waters of the Atlantic and the Pacific. That event is scheduled just about a year hence, and the plan to first navigate the canal is to have one of our naval vessels to make the historic trip.

While the canal really will be navigable in about a year, the formal opening is fixed on January 1st, 1915, little more than two years hence. Col. Goethals already has submitted to President Taft for approval the canal opening programme, and he is awaiting the President's consideration and suggestions about that great world event. The distinguished engineer informs the President that less than 10 per cent. of the work is yet to be done, and that it will be finished at a saving of $25,000,000 under the estimate of $400,000,000 originally fixed for completing the mammoth undertaking.

In the meantime, two years between now and the formal opening of the isthmian waterway will be here all but too soon for our ports to get ready to do business through the canal. It is feared the United States will get behind in its preparation if some rapid movement is not set on foot in the way of getting ships ready and preparing for an export business with Latin American and Oriental countries. Such energy is being exerted by Europe and even Asiatic government interests to get ready for the opening of the waterway, that the New York Commercial and Financial Chronicle calls upon the commercial interests of this country to get busy. It says the European and Asiatic interests are manifesting great energy in preparing to send their ships to develop business relations with Latin American Republics and with the United States as well. That great American journal, noting the foreign preparations, says the "United States must hurry or be willing to appear at the tail end of the international race for Spanish American trade." That but voices the same note sounded by the Hon. John Barrett, director general of the Pan American Union, who has recently been studying the conditions abroad. In his official report, Mr. Barrett summarizes as follows:

"1. Every important port of Great Britain, France, Germany, Holland, Belgium, Scandinavia, Spain, Italy and Austria is being improved to the highest degree of efficiency for oversea commerce.

"2. Every European shipbuilding yard of recognized standing is busy to its capacity constructing ocean-going merchant vessels. Old established steamship lines are adding up-to-date vessels to their fleets, and new companies are being formed and ordering ships.

"3. European governments are instructing their diplomatic and consular agents to study and report upon every phase of trade opportunity expected to result from the canal. Their chambers of commerce and their commercial organizations are co-operating along the same lines, and the business schools are educating trained men for the field. Government officials and representative men in private life are showing particular hospitality and courtesies to the visiting representative men of Latin America and all the other countres whose trade they want. Their banking and investment houses are extending their foreign facilities. Their private business companies of already large established trade and their new companies are sending agents and scouts to Latin America and all parts of the world affected by the canal to investigate trade possibilities.

"4. In Japai three steamship companies are building vessels for the canal. Japanese banks are considering the opening of branches in Latin America. A score of Japanese manufacturing, exporting and importing houses have numerous agents in Central and South America. One Chinese-owned steamship company is planning to operate a line from Shanghai and Hong Kong to Central and South America. Australia's commercial organizations are sending men to South America to develop trade, while Australia and New Zealand are planning to establish a canal steamship line of their own. A new line of freight vessels is to run from Calcutta or Bombay to South America. Canada will run two new direct lines, respectively, from Vancouver and Montreal to the corresponding coasts of Latin America.

"5. The West or Pacific coast of South America, reaching 5,000 miles south from Panama, is showing great preliminary activity. Chili, Peru and Bolivia are spending $50,000,000 in opening up their interiors with railways. Chili is building at Valparaiso a new artificial harbor to cost $15,000,000. Guayaquil, the principal port of Ecuador, and one of the best harbors of the Pacific ocean, is to be made sanitary at a large expense. Callao, the chief port of Peru, is being improved. On the east coast the activity is even greater, for both Argentina and Uruguy will spend nearly $30,000,000 in port improvements at Buenos Ayres and Montevideo, respectively. Brazil is puttiig in first-class condition every port along her 3,000 miles of coast line from Rio Grande de Sul, in the South, to Para, at the mouth of the Amazon. One hundred million dollars is being expended in constructing new railways into the interior of Brazil. Venezuela and Colombia, Central America, Mexico, Cuba and the other West Indian countries are awakening also to the significance and possibilities of the canal, and are sending agents and appointing commissions to study the situation as it affects them."

Mr. Barrett puts us on notice with an exceedingly interesting statement of what other nations are doing. We would like to see a summary of what is being done by the United States. What is being done at our Southern ports? What are Wilmington and Southport going to do?

THE AGRICULTURAL GOVERNOR

The lamented Charles B. Aycock was North Carolina's "educational governor" and he made good as a State executive with a lasting constructive work as his definite and individual policy. He was not content to just be Governor, but he laid strong foundations for a more enlightened and greater North Carolina.

Long before the Hon. Locke Craig was nominated by the Democrats for Governor, The Star nominated him for good roads Governor, and we are glad to note that in some of his campaign speeches he has made powerful pleas for the rural and material development that will come from the building of improved highways. He could not do more for North Carolina than to issue a good roads proclamation as soon as he becomes the Governor of the Good Old North State.

Governor Mann seems to be the "agricultural governor" of Virginia and he surely must leave an impression upon his State as a Governor who had a constructive policy. The Governor has a novel way of emphasizing the diversification of crops. Sometime ago he issued a proclamation calling for more hay production in the Old Dominion, and now his hay proclamation is followed by one on seed corn. This latter proclamation is timely, for the time is here for the farmers to select their seed corn for next year's planting. After it is selected it ought to be well preserved from insects, rats and weather, and if the farmers will follow the scientific rules as to production and seed selection for a few years this South Atlantic country will be the premier corn country of America.

P. S.—Farmers around Wilmington will make from 60 to 100 bushels of corn per acre on river and swamp lands which have been reclaimed and farmed according to Hoyle.

THREE CHANCES FOR SPECIAL PRIVILEGE.

At the beginning of the campaign, Roosevelt and Taft poured hot shot into each other. Now both have their guns trained on Wodrow Wilson. This shows that Roosevelt knows that Wilson, and not Taft, is the man he has to beat. It is evidence of the fact that Taft knows he has to beat Wilson and not Roosevelt. Thus Wilson is now between two fires, because he is the chief obstacle to the success of either one of the protectionist candidates for President.

If either Roosevelt or Taft should win, the people will lose their fight against special interests. On the question of the protective tariff, Taft and Roosevelt and their supporters are agreed. Their other differences embrace ambition, pretension, and hypocrisy. If either Taft or Roosevelt win, it will be a victory for protection, and with either as President the protected interests know they will have four more years of license to take millions of tribute out of the pockets of the people.

People who want relief from the burdens and infamy of the protective tariff, which makes trusts and perpetuates them, ought to know that the only way they can be assured of relief is to support a party which offered such reductions to the people that Taft with one swipe of his veto pen destroyed all Democratic measures of relief and left the outrageous Aldrich bill in full force and effect. Roosevelt has never denounced him for doing that, so that is one Taft act which he heartily approves.

Roosevelt is endeavoring to engage Wilson in a more or less abstruse and dogmatic wrangle, in the inception of which he says the learned ex-president of Princeton displays "a sad lack of knowledge of the functions of the American government." Tut, tut, and also tuti fruti! We have an idea that Wilson has a correct and clear conception of the functions of the people's government, but, as an instance, we fancy he canot understand how the taxing function of the government for the purpose of raising revenue for its conduct can be employed to tax the people for any other purpose, viz: for the benefit of the Republican party's milionaire orphans.

While Teddy is trying to keep the flies off the hat in the ring, he declares Woodrow Wilson has a "sad lack of knowledge of the functions of the American government." Of course, Teddy is mistaken, because the professor certainly knows all about those functions as a mere abstract proposition. The scholarly and philosophical Wilson knows very well that those functions in the concrete become totally defunct in the final analysis of Bull Moosean philosophies and methods. By the same rule, Roosevelt's name will be mud after the 5th of next November.

CURRENT COMMENT.

"If the Democrats would tell the whole truth," says the Albany Journal, "they would confess that they advocate free trade only because they have to make an issue, not because they believe in it." And if the Standpat organs were not so irretrievably addicted to lieing, they would confess that neither the Democratic platform nor its Presidential candidate advocates anything approaching free trade. —Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

We have no doubt that a material reduction in the tariff would bring about a period of hard times, because the protected interests have such a hold on the country that they can bring hard times at will. But when they see that the people are not to be made afraid and that a lower tariff has come to stay they will adjust themselves to it and proceed to business. The people should not expect to win a great victory without paying the price.—Durham Herald (Ind.)

The Montgomery Advertiser defines a North Carolina Democrat differently from the State executive committee. A North Carolina Democrat, it says, is "a man who uses hickory ashes to roast his chinquapins after selling enough of these nuts to buy his Winter's supply of cap and ball ammunition." Of course, nobody in North Carolina will recognize this description, which, however, is about as good as the one that has been officially handed out. Also it is no more behind the times.—Charlotte Observer.

From Arizona comes the news that the colonel has been warned to be careful in the use of his voice, lest it fail him. We learn also that Gov. Johnson is in the shadow of the affliction of loss of voice. All patriots must tremble when they cogitate what would happen to Bull Moosia should the larnyx of the colonel or the larynx of the Governor cease to give forth sweet sounds in this hour of peril. Paderewski carries heavy insurance on those precious fingers of his. Let Bull Moosia arise as one man, or one woman, and have the voice of the Col. and the Gov. insured. While much of the nation might welcome the calamity of silence from these two quite as the man afflicted with the boil welcomes a poultice, or the burned child that soothing emollient, sweet oil, that loss would be sackcloth and ashes to Bull Moosia. Such a calamity is cruel, too, excruciatingly cruel; it can not be; it shall not be. Speech, much speech, is the breath of life to Bull Moosia. Let the human phonograph from the East and the human megaphone from the golden West crack or run down, and Bull Moosia will fall to earth, like Lucifer, never to rise again. The Lord preserve the little light bearers showing the path to Armageddon, and keep them in good voice. Let not the safety valve of speech be tied down on either, lest they blow up.—Wooster (Mass.) Gazette.

BLADEN COUNTY NEWS

Awakening on Subject of Roads—Improvements at Clarkton —Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Clarkton, N. C., Sept. 23.—Bladen seems to be awakening on the all important subject of good roads, the association with Hon. O. L. Clark as president, and a wide-awake vice president in each township are busy organizing the entire county into a band of enthusiastic workers.

Mr. John D. Burney, vice president of this township, called a meeting of the citizens this afternoon for a general discussion of the matter, and to arrange for a full attendance at the county meeting to be held in Elizabethtown on the first Monday in October. Conditions point to prosperous times and to get our share Bladen people realize that they must have good roads on which to meet it.

Contractor J. W. Clark is pushing the work on the new brick two-story drug store of Dr. George L. Clark, which is being built by the side of his old one, when complete this will add much to this part of town.

Mr. Geo. H. Currie has purchased the lot near the McFayden home here, known as the school house lot, and has had plans for a nice two-story dwelling made, the material for which is already being placed.

We are sorry to know that Miss Mattie Burney and her sisters will move to South Carolina some time about the first of October, they are having their beautiful new home thoroughly painted and will rent it to Rev. Mr. Lapsley after October 1st.

The congregation of the Presbyterian church here is looking forward to the meeting of Presbytery next week with much pleasure. We were glad to read in your columns recently a notice of this matter, also an account of the Bladen Journal's hearty welcome to our town of the members of Presbytery and visitors.

Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy and W. P. Gafford, Esq., of Wilmington, spent the afternoon here on their return from court at Elizabethtown this week.

Mrs. Charlie Cox, of Pueblo, Col., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cox.

Mrs. Charlie Stegall, of Marshville, is also visiting relatives and friends here.

We are sorry to report the seriousness illness of Mr. J. C. Clark at the Highsmith Hospital in Fayetteville, where his mother is with him, his father, Rev. David J. Clark, is in the mercantile business here.

Mr. Samuel W. Owen and his bride, nee Miss Lizzie Mae Hall, of Elizabethtown, returned to their home after a ten days' visit to Jacksons Springs, and are now at home to their many friends.

Register of Deeds R. J. Hester passed through this afternoon on his way to see his family in Bladenboro.

DETECTIVES STILL HELD

Agency Fails to Secure Release of Operatives In West Virginia

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 23.—Attorneys for the detective agency whose operatives, acting as mine guards in the martial law zone, have been sent to prison, attempted to secure their release this afternoon by habeas corpus proceedings before Judge F. C. Keller, of the United States Court for the Southern district of West Virginia. Judge Keller refused to consider the application on the ground that the questions involved must be taken before the State Supreme Court. The attorneys attacked the right of Governor Glasscock to declare martial law when, as they assert, no state of war existed.

HOLD JOINT CONVENTION.

Mass. Republican and Democrats Will Select Candidate Today.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 23.—Republicans and Democrats of Massachusetts will hold joint conventions tomorrow to select candidates for the November election. These two parties are the only ones officially recognized by the State, but other parties can obtain places on the ballot by petition.

State, Congressional and local candidates will be selected in the primaries, but Presidential electors will be chosen in conventions on October 5th.

Interest centers in the dual contest for Governor in both parties. Governor Eugene N. Foss is opposed by District Attorney Joseph C. Pelletier, of Boston, in the Democratic party. In the Republican ranks former Speaker Joseph Walker and Col. Everett C. Benton, are candidates for the nomination.

Numerous contests exist also in the Congressional districts in both parties.

WATSON'S MAJORITY FOUR

Defeats Turnbull In Congressional Primary by Small Margin

Richmond, Va., Sept. 23.—According to official and unofficial returns received tonight by the Times-Dispatch from the Fourth district, Democratic primary held on Saturday, Judge Walter A. Watson defeated Representative Robert Turnbull by a majority of four out of nearly 7,000 votes. Both Judge Watson and Representative Turnbull claim the nomination. It will require an official canvass, if not a recount, to determine the result. Many of the precincts are in remote country districts, some of them sending in conflicting reports.

Easy to End CATARRH

Just Breathe Booth's HYOMEI—Kill the Germs and Soothe the Inflamed Membrane—Start Today.

Don't be prejudiced. There is not a particle of morphine, cocaine, or any injurious or habit forming drug in HYOMEI.

It is made of Eucalyptus and other grand antiseptics. It will greatly relieve the misery of catarrh or any affliction of the nose and throat in five minutes.

No stomach dosing—just breathe HYOMEI, it gets at the catarrh germs and quickly destroys them.

Ask for HYOMEI (pronounced High-o-me) outfit. It only costs $1.00, and consists of a hard rubber pocket inhaler, which can be carried in vest pocket, a bottle of HYOMEI, a medicine dropper, and simple directions for use. Extra bottles 50c.

Leading druggists everywhere sell HYOMEI, which is guaranteed to end catarrh, coughs, colds and croup, or money returned.

If you could go to the Eucalyptus forests of inland Australia you would quickly get rid of catarrh. Booth's HYOMEI brings the identical air of these forests direct to your home. It is a most wonderful catarrh remedy. Ask Robt. R. Bellamy about it.

THE HOLLY TRIAL IN PENDER

Dozen or More Witnesses Heard Yesterday—Await Return of Witness —Much Interest In Case— The Outlook

A dozen or more witnesses testified yesterday in Pender county Superior Court at Burgaw in the case of J. C. Holly, of this city, charged with the burning of the Rock Springs Hotel here something like two years ago in which fire his ward, young Edward Cromwell, perished, and at 5:20 o'clock court took a recess until 9:30 o'clock this morning.

Judge Carter, presiding at the term, had strongly intimated that night sessions of the court would be held in an attempt to complete the case by Thursday but at 5:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the State was ready for the testimony of Chief Charles Schnibben, of the Wilmington fire department, and as he was absent attending the National convention of Fire Chiefs at Denver, Col., and was not expected to return until midnight, Judge Carter allowed the State a recess until this morning at which time it is expected that Chief Schnibben would have returned and the State would be ready to proceed. Solicitor Shaw explained that right at the juncture which had been reached in the testimony of the State, with the witnesses that were to follow, it was necessary to present Chief Schnibben's testimony testimony and under these circumstances, last night's session was dispensed with.

As stated in Sunday morning's paper the jury panel had been completed Saturday night at 8 o'clock, and the trial proceeded yesterday morning at 10 o'clock without delay. Wilmington attorneys engaged in the case returned to the city last night and will return to Burgaw on the morning train today. An immense crowd, including ladies, was in the court room yesterday and the people are manifesting great interest in the trial. William J. Bellamy and C. D. Weeks, Esqs., appearing for the prisoner, were assisted in the selection of the jury by C. E. McCullen, Esq., of Burgaw, but are conducting the defense further alone. Messrs. Bland & Bland, of Burgaw, are assisting the solicitor in the prosecution.

Those who returned from Burgaw last night say that it is the general concensus of opinion that the State has thus far not made out nearly so strong a case as it did on the two former trials in this county and that with the showing thus far made, a verdict of acquittal is not without the range of probability. Holly is in court with his attorneys and while intently watching the proceedings, apparently manifests nothing but the utmost confidence that he will be freed.

Assistant Fire Chief W. P. Monroe, of Wilmington, was the first witness for the State yesterday morning and detailed the circumstances of the fire, his testimony developing nothing new except an admission on cross-examination that sometimes in the fire headquarters in Wilmington kerosene is used on the bed clothing to keep mosquitoes away.

Foreman Louis Friemuth also testified as to the circumstances of the fire and the finding of the body of young Cromwell after the blaze.

H. E. Robbins, the insurance agent who wrote the policy which Holly carried on the life of the young man, related the circumstances of the insurance and of the transfer of the policy to Holly in Lawyer J. H. Scull's office. On cross-examination he stated that life insurance policies were often taken by young men and transferred to others on a loan for educational purposes, which the defense will claim was the purpose in this instance.

Fireman A. J. Burriss testified as to the fire and the finding of the body of the young man and of the suspicious circumstances attending the fire.

F. M. Canady, a boarder at the hotel, told of the family relations of Holly and of a visit he made to the jail to see Holly. He told witness to tell "Dick Kennedy to come to the jail to see him" and if he did not "he would let the cat out of the wallet." Witness said later that Holly might have had reference to the fatherhood of the boy as being "the cat out of the wallet." He also told of Holly's preparation to move to the country and said the boy was very much averse to the moving and he had said that "he would rather die first."

Undertaker W. W. King testified as to the burial of the body, etc., nothing new from the former trials being brought out in his testimony.

Mr. James Owon Reilly, real estate and insurance agent, told of writing Holly an insurance policy for $1,250 on his household and kitchen furniture on June 2nd, 1910. The goods were apparently easily worth $1,750. He also told of conditions after the fire and of having taken a newspaper and wiped off the bed, it becoming so soiled with kerosene that it burned rapidly when he tried it. He said Holly always paid his rent and witness gave him a good character up to the time of the fire.

Fireman Graham G. Smith testified as to conditions after the fire and of having watched the property while the fire was being investigated. He also corroborated Mr. Reilly as to the paper and the evidences of kerosene.

Fireman Alonzo Burriss testified along the same lines and Capt. Monroe was recalled to exhibit the mattress, quilts, etc., from the room which Cromwell occupied.

Miss Cora Caudle, solicitor for a magazine who lived in the Holly household at the time of the fire, told of the Holly family relations and of writing several letters for him after his imprisonment. These letters have thus far not been put in evidence. She said that Holly was perfectly upright as far as she knew and that he had paid back to her, after he was in jail, $47 which she had given him to keep for her before the fire.

Magistrate George Harriss testified to the arraignment of Holly after his arrest and his statement that "only God, the boy and himself knew anything about the fire." Constable W. B. Savage corroborated Magistrate Harriss and told of a reiteration of the statement by Holly on his way to jail.

Dr. C. D. Bell, coroner, testified as to the inquest over the body of young Cromwell and as to the probable causes of death. Dr. W. D. MacMillan, county superintendent of health, told of having performend an autopsy on the body and read the result thereof. He gave it as his opinion that the boy had died of suffocation.

With the completion of this testimony the State announced that it could proceed no further without the evidence of Chief Schnibben and a recess was taken as stated. Nearly all the witnesses yesterday on cross-examination gave Holly a good character until the time of the fire.

On account of the crowded condition of the Pender county jail over Sunday Holly was brought back to Wilmington on the late train Saturday night and placed in jail here until yesterday morning when he was taken back to Burgaw. The jail at Burgaw has been cleared of some of its prisoners and has been fumigated and cleaned and Holly will be confined there at night during the remainder of the trial. He could not very well be brought back to Wilmington every day as Judge Carter expressed his purpose of holding night sessions in order to complete the trial by Wednesday night, if possible. However, the opinion prevails among the attorneys engaged in the case that it will be Thursday night anyway before the case is completed. It is possible that the jury will be hung up for a day or two, in which event Judge Carter would have to remain at Burgaw until they agreed or were discharged. There is still little chance of court convening here this week.

C. D. Weeks and Wm. J. Bellamy, Esqs., of the Wilmington bar, who alone represent the prisoner, are hopeful of securing his acquittal at this trial. They seem to think that they have a fairly good jury from the defendant's standpoint. The State is equally as well satisfied with the jury. People of Burgaw and Pender county have shown an unusually large amount of interest in the case and indications were that the court room would be filled with interested spectators every day this week.

The jury, the last member of which was selected about 8 o'clock Saturday night, is as follows: J. D. Andrews, M. L. Whitehead, J. A. Rivenbark, D. L. Futch, H. N. Messick, W. H. White, L. F. Hufham, J. T. Moore, Henry Wells, B. J. Rooks, W. O. Savage, Will Dicksey.

A large number of witnesses left yesterday morning for Burgaw to testify in the case. Among the important witnesses are members of the fire department. Nine firemen appear as witnesses, the most important evidence, however, is that of Chief Chas. Schnibben and Assistant Chief W. P. Monroe. The latter went to Burgaw yesterday. The former has been attending the National convention of Fire Chiefs at Denver, Col., and was expected to return last night.

C. D. Weeks, Esq., stated in reply to a question before leaving for Burgaw yesterday morning that it had not yet been decided whether the defense would introduce any testimony. This will depend largely upon the evidence presented by the State.

Mr. R. S. Register, formerly an insurance man of Wilmington, but for the past several months a resident of Norlina, N. C., who was called to this city a few days ago on account of the death of a brother, was arrested last night by Deputy Sheriff John H. Davis on a capias from Burgaw, where he is wanted as a witness in the Holly case. Mr. Register was summoned as a witness at the first trial, but he says that he was not summoned at the second trial nor had he been summoned for the third trial at Burgaw. He said that had he known that he was wanted he would have been in Burgaw for the trial, but that as a matter of fact he did not even know the trial was in progress. At his request Justice Harriss called Judge Carter over the long distance telephone at Burgaw and briefly explained to him the circumstances. Judge Carter ordered that Mr. Register be released on $200 bond justified before the Clerk of Superior Court for his appearance at Burgaw this morning. The bond was given with his brother, Mr. Ed. Register, as surety. Mr. Register is a well-known young man and it would have been an easy matter for him to have given bond in a sum several times the amount required of him.

A short time later Mr. W. J. Davis was arrested on capias to appear as a witness in the case. In accordance with the action in the case of Mr. Register, Mr. Davis was allowed to go on giving $200 justified bond with Mr. Chas. Daniels as surety for his appearance in Burgaw today.

MR. J. C. BORDEAUX DEAD

Passed Away at Hospital In This City Sunday Afternoon

Many friends in this city learned with regret of the death of Mr. Jas. C. Bordeaux, which occurred Sunday afternoon at 6 o'clock at the James Walker Memorial Hospital, after a lingering illness. Mr. Bordeaux formerly lived in Wilmington, but for a number of years he has been living at Castle Haynes. His mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Bordeaux, lives at Topsail Sound. Mr. Bordeaux was 38 years old and besides his mother is survived by three brothers, Messrs. W. P. Bordeaux, Ashton; G. C. Bordeaux, Wilmington; H. P. Bordeaux, Topsail, and two sisters, Mrs. Lacy E. King and Miss Jimmie Bordeaux, both of Topsail.

The body was removed to the undertaking establishment of the M. H. Brimmer Company and taken yesterday morning to Pike Creek Presbyterian church. The pallbearers from the funeral parlors to the train were: J. H. Westbrook, W. R. Kingsbury, T. Y. Morriss and Mr. Padgett. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Pays Visit to Kinston

Kinston Free Press: "Col. William Ewing, of Wilmington, was a visitor of note in the city this morning. Colonel Ewing was chief of the hospital service in the Cuban revolutionary army prior to the American invasion of the island in 1898, and served on the staff of General Gomez against the Spanish. He afterward entered the United States service, serving with distinction. Colonel Ewing was en route to LaGrange, and says he will lecture here at a later date. He was for many years a resident of Cuba, and talks interestingly of the Pearl of the Antilles. He is a native of this State, having been born near Wilmington."

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

No Cases of Any Importance on Dock Yesterday Morning.

Recorder Furlong did not have any cases of special interest or importance for his consideration yesterday morning and court lasted only about an hour. The principal defendant was Thomas Shaw, colored, who was charged with carrying a concealed weapon. He was arrested late Sunday afternoon on a peace warrant sworn out by a woman and when searched the pistol was found on his person. For this the Recorder gave him three months on the county roads. The negro was tried in Justice Bornemann's court on the peace warrant and his bond to keep the peace for 12 months fixed at $50.

John Shaw and James Powell were tried on a charge of an affray. Shaw was required to pay $5 and costs and Powell was taxed his portion of the costs. Louis Gardner was taxed the costs for violating the driving ordinance, and similar disposition was made of a case against George William for violating the hitching ordinance. W. A. Hundley, for assault on a female, was required to pay $5 and costs. In the case against W. L. Taylor, a young white man, charged with larceny by trick, being indicted by C. T. Smaw, by whom he was formerly employed, the Recorder announced that he would suspend judgment upon payment of the costs. The defendant, through his attorney, Woodus Kellum, Esq., gave notice of appeal.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Several Deeds Filed for Record at Court House Yesterday.

Deeds were filed for record yesterday as follows: The Southern Realty & Development Co., to J. A. Hufham and wife, for $200, lots 504 and 505, Lakeside Park;

Southern Realty & Development Co., to Minnie G. Long, of Shallotte, for $100 and other considerations, lots 286 and 287, Lakeside Park.

H. W. Konig and wife to W. G. Jones and wife, for $100 and other considerations, lot on southeast corner of McRae and Howard streets, 30 x75 feet in size.

John T. Lowrimore and wife to S. and B. Solomon, for $1,000 and other considerations, lot on east side of Front street, 165 feet south of Meares street, 33x150 feet in size.

R. H. Reville and wife to S. & B. Solomon, for $100 and other considerations, lot on east side of Front street, 165 feet south of Meares, 42.4 and 53 by 150 and 150.4 feet in size.

Miles Carroll and wife to Anson Alligood, for $100 and other considerations, lot on southeast corner of 12th and Orange streets, 33x77 feet in size.

Will Require Peace Bond.

Thomas Shaw, colored, was given hearing in Justice Bornemann's court yesterday on a peace warrant sworn out by Irene Barber, colored. The judgment of the court was that he give $50 bond to keep the peace for 12 months, but he was unable to give the bond. The Barber woman went to Justice Bornemann late Sunday afternoon and asked or a peace warrant against Shaw, saying that Shaw had threatened her life. The warrant was issued. There being no deputy sheriff in easy reach Justice Bornemann gave the warrant to Policeman Jordan. The officer found the negro at the woman's gate and found a pistol on his person. The negro was taken to the City Hall, where a charge of carrying a concealed weapon was entered against him.

BRUNSWICK DEMOCRATS MEET

Success of Entire Ticket Is Predicted —Geo. H. Bellamy Named as Candidate for the House— Other Nominees.

What is characterized as the largest attended, most harmonious and enthusiastic Democratic convention held in Brunswick county in 20 years, auguring Democratic success at the polls in November, was held at Lockwood's Folly Saturday, convening at noon and remaining in session until 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Hon. Geo. H. Bellamy, who represented New Hanover and Brunswick counties in the last General Assembly, as Senator, was nominated for the House and a full county ticket was put in the field.

Owing to the fact that the telephone lines running into Brunswick county from Wilmington were practically out of commission Saturday night, The Star was unable to obtain any particulars of the convention for Sunday's paper. Senator Bellamy was in the city yesterday and brought news of the convention. He is enthusiastic over the prospects of the success of the ticket in November. In his opinion the entire ticket will be elected for the first time in years. The Republicans of the county will hold their convention October 11th at which a candidate for the House and a full county ticket will be named. C. Ed. Taylor, Esq., who has represented his county in the Legislature a number of times, is being prominently spoken of for the candidacy again this year.

The Democratic convention at Lockwood's Folly was called to order at noon Saturday and Hon. Geo. H. Bellamy was made permanent chairman. After the preliminaries were over the convention proceeded to the nomination of candidates. There were a large number of aspirants for county offices. Mr. Bellamy was placed in nomination for the House. Dr. D. I. Watson, of Southport, was also nominated. The vote was 29 to 4 in favor of Mr. Bellamy, who was declared the nominee. Other candidates were named, as follows:

Sheriff—John E. Robinson.
Register of Deeds—Geo. H. Gray.
Treasurer—Chas. A. Russ.
Coroner—D. Lennox Gore.
Surveyor—Ralph M. Edwards.

SUMMER HOME BURNED.

Residence of Mr. O. A. Wiggins, on Masonboro, Destroyed by Fire.

Early Sunday morning the Summer home of Mr. O. A. Wiggins, on Masonboro Sound, was totally destroyed by fire which originated in some unknown way on the second floor soon after Mr. Wiggins and a party of young men friends from Wilmington had returned from a fishing trip in the sound. With practically no fire-fighting apparatus on the premises, occupants of the home upon discovery of the fire could do little but save a few pieces of furniture which they carried to a place of safety. Returning from the sound shortly before midnight, Mr. Wiggins and his guests went on the second floor to change their clothing and had returned downstairs when one of the party heard a noise upstairs. Going to the porch to investigate one of the party discovered the flames only a few minutes before the roof fell in. They saved what they could before being forced to leave for a place of safety. Mr. Wiggins lost personally $20 in cash in the pockets of some clothes that had been laid aside and two members of the party were unfortunate enough to lose their watches. The house was a two-story frame dwelling and was valued at about $1,000. Mr. Wiggins carried only $400 insurance.

Rev. W. G. Hall Declines.

Rev. W. G. Hall, pastor of Southside Baptist church, who a few days ago received a flattering call to the pastorate of the Rockingham Baptist church, and who gave the call serious consideration, Sunday night announced to his congregation that he had decided to decline the offer and would remain in Wilmington. The announcement was received with much pleasurable interest by members of the congregation. Mr. Hall is an able and popular pastor and is greatly beloved in Wilmington, not only among his own congregation, but by the people generally.

WILSON HEATERS.

Attractive Display of "The Favorites" at Peck & Holloway's.

Who has not visions of warmth and comfort at the mention of "Wilson Heaters"? The name Wilson—one to conjure with in these stirring campaign days and the one that is sometimes mentioned in connection with a certain high ball of renown!

All of which is preliminary to stating that at the store of Messrs. Peck & Holloway, North Front street, there is an especially attractive display of these favorite heaters, of which the firm is the agent in this territory. The stock embraces heaters of all classes and all sizes and with the approach of Winter the exhibit is exceedingly timely. A visit to the store will be appreciated by the members of the firm and if it's a Wilson in the heating line, they have it.

PURCHASED "THE EVERGLADE."

Messrs. F. S. and T. A. Shepard Proprietors of New Restaurant.

Messrs. Frank S., and Thomas A. Shepard yesterday closed a deal by which they become purchasers of the "Everglade", one of the city's leading cafes, on Princess street, from Mr L. J. Carter, of the Hanover Realty Co. The place was recently very much improved and refitted and the new purchasers, who are well and favorably known young Wilmington business men, intend to make still further improvements. Mr. Cecil McKeithan will remain in charge as manager with the same competent force of help. First-class service for both ladies and gentlemen is assured the public and the cafe under the new management, as under the former management, will no doubt continue to improve and prosper.

UNIQUE REVIVAL BEGINS.

Young People to Hold Services Every Night at First Baptist Church.

A most unique revival and one that promises great results began at the First Baptist church last night under the auspices of the Baptist Young ther was unfavorable and very little therwas unfavorable and very little had been said of the plans of the young people there were present between 50 and 75 young men and young ladies. A number of short talks were made and the service proved helpful to all present. The young people announced their determination to conduct a revival throughout the week, holding services every evening at 8 o'clock, to which the public generally is cordially invited to attend. No special programme will be arranged in advance and all will be free to join in the service.

DRUM FISHING FINE.

Six Large Channel Bass Caught Off Seashore Hotel Pier.

"'Tis an ill wind that blows nobody good", is a true saying, for the rather stiff northeaster that has been blowing on Wrightsville Beach for the past few days, while bringing with it some very disagreeable weather, has also brought some fine fishing. The usual fine sport that follows a little blow after a prolonged period of calm weather is already in evidence and yesterday afternoon no less than six fine drum or channel bass were caught off the Seashore Hotel pier. Rev. John C. Wooten, pastor of Grace Methodist church and an enthusiastic angler, captured the largest of the six, a monster weighing 30 pounds; though several of the others were larger than the ordinary run. Experienced fishermen are looking for some fine sport from now on, not only with the drum, but with the trout, blue fish and other gamier varieties.

The "luck" of the fishermen continued last night at the beach and according to report, some further record catches were made. Mr. George Hutaff landed two magnificent drum weighing 20 and 25 pounds respectively, while young Mr. George Hutaff, Jr., of the Junction Restaurant, landed one which weighed 31 pounds. Mr. W. A. Creteau, also of the Junction, pulled in one weighing 17 3-4 pounds, and Mr. William Turner established 23 as the record for himself. Doubtless, if the fishing continues good, the pier will be thronged with ardent disciples of Isaak Walton today and tonight.

HEARING POSTPONED.

Commerce Court Will Take Up "Newport News Case" Oct. 8th.

Washington, Sept. 23.—Hearing by Judge Hunt, of the Commerce Court, of the application of the Southern Railway and other railroads operated in the South for an injunction to restrain the Inter-State Commerce Commission from putting into effect its order in the "Newport News case" was postponed today from tomorrow until October 8th. At that time it will be heard by the full Commerce Court, except Judge Archbald, who is not sitting at present as a member of the court.

The order of the commission requires the railroads to accord to Newport News the same freight rates as are accorded to Norfolk, Va., on traffic originating at points 150 miles or more south of Newport News.

On account of the pending litigation the commission late today announced that the effective date of its order would be postponed from October 1st until October 20th. It is expected that the case may be by that time disposed of by the Commerce Court.

Roanoke, Va., Sept. 23.—The Virginia Baseball League met here today with representatives from all clubs present and President Boatwright presiding. The pennant for 1912 was awarded to Roanoke. Officers will be elected and next year's circuit determined at a meeting of the league in Portsmouth in November.

..Theatrical..

Seats go on sale this morning at Plummer's for the merry, sparkling Cohan music show, "Forty-five Minutes From Broadway," scheduled for matinee and night at the Academy tomorrow. The matinee will, no doubt, be a jam, as the prices will be of the popular type, reserved seats 50 and 75 cents, while children will be admitted to any portion of the theatre for 25 cents.

The attraction has received most flattering praise from the press. In addition to the North Carolina papers that have been singing its praises, the Virginia press has joined in. The following tribute comes from the Roanoke Evening News:

"Last evening's offering is rightly termed a production. The scenery is elaborate and accurate to the minutest detail, which the properties, electrical effects, and stage-direction appears to be correct to the smallest demand. The songs are Cohan's most whistleable, and doubtless will be heard on Roanoke streets for weeks to come. Of the story, for there is a story, suffice it to say, it deals with the pretty romance of Kid Burns and Mary, also the too-much-mother-in-law affairs of young Bennett, a millionaire, and Flora Dora Dean, a fluffy young thing recently graduated from the chorus. There is a will that plays an important part in the comedy, but, like all good entertainment, the final curtain descends on a general state of happiness all around.

"Naturally, interest is centered on Kid Burns and Mary, although the entire cast is one of unusual general excellence. Mr. Leigh put humanity into his Kid Burns, making him a lovable, slangy fellow with a heart that is true blue all the way. His song, 'Forty five Minutes From Broadway,' is half sung, half talked, with a sincerity and humorous drawl that scores heavily. Mary is made a picture by Miss Burgess, who not only gains sympathy and approval by her charming face, but through her magnetic portrayal of the woman in the part. Miss Burgess possesses a sweet, clear singing voice that does full justice to the two song numbers allotted her, 'Mary is a Grand Old Name,' and 'So Long Mary.'

"The chorus is a real one. The management might safely offer a reward to anyone able to point out a plain or homely face among the fine looking lot of really young men and women. The girls all seem to have the innate gift of wearing beautifully made and designed gowns as they should be worn, and offer one pretty stage-picture after another."

"The Traveling Salesman"

The coming engagement of "The Traveling Salesman," James Forbes' comedy success at the Academy Friday night of this week can truly be called one of the big theatrical events of the present season.

The first act of "The Traveling Salesman" shows the interior of a railroad depot at Grand Crossing, a little town in the Middle West. It is here that Bob Blake, the traveling salesman, makes the acquaintance of Beth Elliott, the pretty telegraph operator and ticket agent. Beth is possessed of a barren and untillable piece of land, which suddenly becomes of immense value because it is necessary to a scheme of improvement the railway company desires to carry out.

Martin Drury, who is Blake's employer, becomes possessed of the knowledge that the railroad company is to make the improvements, and attempts to defraud the girl of the property through a perversion of laws governing the sale of land for unpaid taxes. It is Blake's aim to defeat the scheme, and the predicament in which he finds himself through his impetuous and misguidded efforts furnishes the necessary dramatic thread for Mr. Forbes' comedy, which aims chiefly at a humorous exposition of the characteristics of "the Knight of the grip."

The second act which takes place in Blake's room in the village hotel, is said to be one of the funniest ever staged. It represents a hotel sample room and shows the "drummers'" poker game in full swing.

"The Traveling Salesman" scored an unequivocal success in New York and Chicago in which cities it ran for over a year. The company presenting the play this season is a most capable aggregation of actors of excellent artistic reputation and the scenic equipment leaves nothing to be desired.

Seats will be on sale at Plummer's Thursday morning.

The Grand Theatre.

At the Grand Theatre today lovers of old time melody will be delighted to hear again as the song "That Mysterious Rag". This popular song has caught the country by storm and it will be greeted at the Grand today as a return of an old favorite.

With the complete orchestra, a soloist, the pictures with all the realistic effects, the Grand is now the mecca for hundreds of people daily and if anything, the pretty playhouse is all the more popular. There will be three great pictures today, of the very latest and the most engaging in plot and action. A Kalem is especially up to date. It is called "The Parasite," and relates the story of Fred Adams who leaves home to join the Mexican insurrectos. During a sharp engagement he is wounded and left on the field to die. An adventurer happens along and seeing that sure death is the fate of the young American decides to impersonate him, being his exact double. What follows is altogether interesting and pleasing.

The other feature film is "An Adamless Eden," an Essanay photoplay of a clean-cut, rollicking comedy of the funniest sort with a roaring climax. A lone man wanders into a feminine Eden and the result is one continuous, long string of joy laughs.

All roads lead to the Grand and if you expect to meet your friend at the "moveys" today, he or she will be at the Grand.

Four Films at Bijou.

Four big films are on today's delightful and really stylish offering at the popular Bijou. It will be just such an offering, too, as will put all drear feeling to rout, as included in the four will be two of the greatest comedy pictures ever created. They are not mildly comic, but uproariously so. They will prove a scream from start to finish. This duo of fun rioters will be led by the Biograph's swell bit, "With a Kodak". A maid and the butler are both discharged at the same time. Then they get busy with a kodak and take pictures that make the master and "missus" afraid to face the music and they have to be reinstated. But the plotters finally get it in the neck.

"Pants and Pansies" is the other mirth-provoker. It deals with the old story of a young fellow who buys pansies and a pair of pants and the messenger gets the two packages mixed but the theme in this film is treated in entirely new manner and would make a horse ha, ha.

The dramatic part of today's bill is not going to be neglected by any means. Another film in which the star, G. M. Anderson, appears, will be on today. It is entitled "The Sheriff and His Man" and it is one of the best Mr. Anderson has ever appeared in. It has well been designated as a "picture with a punch."

Another powerful dramatic film for today is "A Child's Devotion." It tells of a husband's second marriage, but there is no jarring note to it. Rather, it is beautiful in nature and tells of how the second mother finally wins "Laddie", the only child of the first wife. It is a tale that is novel and one of much wholesomeness.

It should be remembered that no matter the class of weather the Bijou is the delightfully comfortable spot. The admission always will be just 5 cents, afternoon or night.

MRS. W. H. NORTHROP, SR., DEAD.

Good Woman Entered Into Rest Yesterday Morning—Funeral.

After months of painful suffering, endured with a Christian fortitude and a patient resignation that were beautiful to behold, Mrs. Alice Middleton Fillyaw Northrop, the beloved wife of Capt. William H. Northrop, Sr., entered into rest yesterday morning at 5 o'clock at the apartments of the family in The Carolina. While Mrs. Northrop's death was not unexpected, it came as a sad realization to those who had watched so patiently by her bedside and had ministered so tenderly to her every want during her long illness. For two years or longer Mrs. Northrop had been in wretched health and for the past several months had been confined to her room. Only her remarkable vitality, her genial, happy disposition and her beautiful resignation postponed the end. Her last illness and her death were, indeed a benediction to all about her.

Mrs. Northrop was in the 55th year of her age and had been a life-resident of Wilmington and New Hanover county. For several seasons she had conducted with signal ability the "Northrop Cottage", on Wrightsville Beach, a select home for many people all over this and other States during the Summer season. Her hospitality, her bright and cheerful disposition and her beauty of character were known far and wide and the regret at her sad death, although not unexpected, will be general and widespread.

For the past two seasons her health had forbade her active charge of the cottage, but at her home in this city she had manifested an interest in affairs and until the end enjoyed the companionship of her friends and her devoted husband with whom she had lived most happily for more than 30 years and who survives her, with two sisters, Mrs. Ella Hill and Mrs. H. G. Smallbones, and one brother, Mr. O. M. Fillyaw, also of this city. There are also surviving a number of nephews and nieces and two grandchildren, Mr. George Carmichael and Miss May Carmichael. Mr. George Carmichael came yesterday from school upon the announcement of the death of his grandmother. Rev. W. E. Hill, of Atlanta, Ga., a nephew, and Miss Julia Hill, a niece, who was visiting in Florida, arrived last night on account of the death of their aunt. All of the sorrowing ones have the tenderest sympathy of a host of friends here and elsewhere.

The body of Mrs. Northrop was taken yesterday morning from the apartments of the family in The Carolina to the home of her sister, Mrs. Smallbones, on North Third street, where many friends called during the afternoon and evening to offer their condolences and to be of any assistance possible to those bowed down so deeply in grief.

The funeral will be held at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon from the First Presbyterian church, of which she had long been a devoted member and the interment will be in Oakdale cemetery. The services will be by her pastor, the Rev. John M. Wells, D. D., assisted by the Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church.

SCHREITER'S SUGGESTION

Detroit Councilmanic Clerk Admits Fostering Conspiracy

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 23.—Former Councilmanic Clerk Edward R. Schreiter, testifying for the prosecution today at the hearing of himself and 17 aldermen charged with conspiracy to defraud the city, admitted he was the first of the 18 to suggest the acceptance of money from the Wabash Railroad in return for municipal favors.

During his cross-examination Schreiter said he discussed the so-called Wabash deal with each of the 17 aldermen under indictment, as well as others not accused of bribery. In every instance, he said, he was the first to suggest that they agree to accept money for their vote to close a street for the benefit of the railroad company. He also testified that after that time and prior to arrest of the councilmen, each had actually received alleged bribe money or had promised to take it.

Charges of promising to accept a bribe on which Aldermen Merritt and Zoleller and Skrezycki were arrested some time ago, were dismissed in justice court today. Merritt and Zoeller have still to answer to the conspiracy charge.

Many Driven From Home

Every year, in many parts of the country, thousands are driven from their homes by coughs and lung diseases. Friends and business are left behind for other climates, but this is costly and not always sure. A better way—the way of multitudes—is to use Dr. King's New Discovery and cure yourself at home. Stay right there, with your friends, and take this safe medicine. Throat and lung troubles find quick relief and health returns. Its help in coughs, colds, grip, croup, whooping cough and sore lungs make it a positive blessing. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Mr. J. I. Lockfaw, a well known young business man, yesterday received from Governor W. W. Kitchin his commission as notary public.

—License has been issued for the marriage of Mr. Isaac S. Chadwick to Miss Annie Ramsey, daughter of Mrs. R. T. Ramsey, of Wilmington.

—Emmanual Foster, a Portuguese, charged with beating George Rowan, the 13-year-old son of Mr. R. F. Rowan, who lives at Fifth and Castle streets, will be given hearing before Justice Harriss at 12 o'clock today.

—Tom Wright, Jr., colored, is in jail awaiting trial before Justice Harriss on a warrant charging him with the larceny of a pair of glasses from Queen Moore, colored. He was arrested Sunday by Deputy Sheriff Davis.

—Mr. Jos. F. Craig, the well known tinsmith, was painfully hurt last week, when a ladder on which he was working at Grace Methodist church, fell and precipitated him to the ground. He was attended by Dr. Bulluck.

—John Evans, colored, who got on a suburban car leaving Wrightsville Sound at 11 o'clock, was turned over to the police when the car reached Third and Princess streets. It was alleged that he was drunk and disorderly. He was given a berth at the City Hall.

—Neill Hayes, colored, charged with being implicated with Frank Tansel, colored, in kidnapping Noxie Williams, the 13-year-old negro girl, was arrested yesterday morning by Deputy Sheriff Davis. He gave $250 bond for appearance at trial before Justice Harriss today. Tansel is still in jail in default of $500 bond.

—A negro going under the name of John Henry was arrested yesterday afternoon near the Coast Line freight depot by Policeman J. O. Bullard on suspicion that he is wanted in Fayetteville. Some negroes told the officer that Henry escaped from the county roads in Cumberland. The authorities at Fayetteville were notified of the negro's arrest.

—In the case of W. L. Taylor, a young white man who was convicted in the Recorder's court some days ago on a charge of larceny by trick, an appeal to Superior Court has been taken. He gave bond for his appearance in the higher tribunal. The judgment of the Recorder's court, from which he took an appeal, was that he pay the cost.

—Suit was started in Superior Court yesterday by W. L. Pawles against the Camp Manufacturing Co. It is an action for alleged personal injuries received by the plaintiff while in the employ of the defendant company. While the complaint has not yet been filed it is understood that damages in the sum of $5,000 will be asked. Ex-Judge E. K. Bryan appears for the plaintiff.

—Four young white men, Messrs. Chas. Darden, Chas. Holden, Wiley Burnett and Ed. Lyons, surrendered themselves to Justice Harriss Sunday night and will be tried tomorrow on a charge of an affray, said to have occurred in Struther's cigar store Saturday night about 10 o'clock. It is stated that three or four more young men were engaged in the affair and they will be arrested.

ARBITRATORS MEET

Judge Knapp and Dr. Neill Hear Railroads and Employes

Washington, Sept. 23.—Presiding Judge Martin A. Knapp, of the Commerce Court, and Dr. Charles P. Neill, Commissioner of Labor, mediators under the Erdmann Act, in an effort to adjust the controversy over wages between the Southern Railway and other roads operating in the South and their trainmen and conductors, today heard both sides of the question in dispute. Representatives of the employes were in conference at the Commerce Court with the mediators this morning and the railroad officials were heard this afternoon. No determination of the points in issue was reached and it probably will be several days before the mediators arrive at a definite conclusion. It appears now to be entirely likely that the wage problem will be a subject of arbitration.

NERVOUS DESPONDENT WOMEN

Find Relief in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound —Their Own Statements So Testify.

Platea, Pa.—"When I wrote to you first I was troubled with female weakness and backache, and was so nervous that I would cry at the least noise, it would startle me so. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies, and I don't have any more crying spells. I sleep sound and my nervousness is better. I will recommend your medicines to all suffering women."—Mrs. MARY HALSTEAD, Platea, Pa., Box 98.

Here is the report of another genuine case, which still further shows that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be relied upon.

Walcott, N. Dakota.—"I had inflammation which caused pain in my side, and my back ached all the time. I was so blue that I felt like crying if any one even spoke to me. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I began to gain right away. I continued its use and now I am a well woman."—Mrs. AMELIA DAHL, Walcott, N. Dakota.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

French Market Coffee on Nearly Every Dining Table!

For many years coffee drinkers said: "If we could only get French Market Coffee at home!"

This has at last been made possible by the establishment of the French Market Mills, and by the perfecting of the new hermetically-sealed package for French Market Coffee.

French Market Coffee

NOW, French Market Coffee, identically the same as the famous coffee of the old French Market in New Orleans, can be had daily, on every dining table, with all its delicious aroma and flavor unimpaired.

There's only one real old French Market flavor—only one coffee with a history.

Roasted by our unique hygienic process.

COTTON MARKET LESS ACTIVE

Flucuations Were Irregular Within a Comparatively Narrow Range—Early Decline Party Recovered—Close Off

New York, Sept. 23.—The cotton market was less active today and fluctuations were irregular within a comparatively narrow range. An early decline was partly recovered and the market closed steady, but at a net loss of 2 to 6 points.

The opening was steady, at unchanged prices to a decline of 2 points and the market sold about 7 to 8 points net lower during the early trading, under liquidation by buyers of last week, spot houses selling and a little local bear pressure. Disappointing cables, talk of increased Southern offerings, and the failure of early weather advices to indicate any damaging temperatures in the belt over Sunday, probably accounted for this setback. But the presence of a low barometer in the Gulf, just off Pensacola, which had caused rains in the Eastern belt and promised to result in further precipitation, caused some anxiety, and on the decline to 11.51 for January the market met considerable support. Private wires from the Eastern belt complaining of excessive rainfall and damage to open cotton, were accompanied by buying orders in many instances, and in addition to talk of Gulf storm damage the presence of a high barometer in the Pacific Northwest led to price predictions of another frost scare before the end of the week. The market became steadier during the middle of the day, and rallied a few points from the lowest. Trading was very quiet, however, and while the demand seemed to increase on dips, there was considerable cotton for sale on the rallies, causing fluctuations within a range of 4 to 5 points.

Spot closed quiet. Middling uplands, 11.85; do. Gulf, 12.10. Sales, 88 bales.

Futures closed steady.

New Orleans, Sept. 20—Right-of-way to a water spout, the largest reported in a long time in the gulf, according to the stories told by the ship's officers upon arrival here yesterday, was given Wednesday by the United Fruit Company's steamship Cartago, inbound about 300 miles off the mouth of the river. The vessel was steered a mile or more out of her course.

SOME STOCKS MAKE RECORDS

United States Steel and Amalgamated Copper Touch High-Water Mark Other Issues of Less Importance Gain

New York, Sept. 23.—Some new high records for the year were established in today's stock market. United States Steel and Amalgamated Copper touching high marks with other issues of less prominence. Trading was again heavy, though, under last Friday's total, but the rise was several times checked by obvious profit-taking and further bear opposition. The latter element, from all accounts, has been largely eliminated, however, and no small part of today's advance may be reasonably attributed to outside or investment demand.

The market derived some encouragement from last Saturday's relatively favorable bank statement and further gold engagements abroad, $2,500,000 being taken in London. Announcement of an advance in pig iron and advices from the West which dealt with the traffic situation contributed to the movement. Apparently the movement of freight for the next few weeks will be limited only by the available supply of railroad equipment.

Best prices today were scored in the last hour, Amalgamated leading the rise to the accompaniments of reports from Boston that copper was selling there at a fraction over 18 points the pound. Equipment issues and the Hill stocks also were in demand, but Reading and Lehigh Valley were under pressure.

Call money opened at 4¾ per cent. with a slight increase of supply. Time money rates fell back slightly on the improved banking position and lighter demand.

The bond market was broader and generally higher, some of the speculative issues being largely traded in. Total sales, par value, aggregated $2,460,000. United States 3s declined ¼ per cent., the 4s advanced ¼ and the Panama 3s 1½. Total sales, $14,000 shares.

PREPARING FOR TEDDY.

"No Entertainment" is Word Received by Atlanta Progressives.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 23.—"No entertainment" is the word received by local leaders of the Progressive party in connection with preparations for Col. Roosevelt's visit here next Saturday and Sunday. The colonel's only official appearance will be at the auditorium, where he will speak Saturday night. A reception committee of Georgians will meet the candidate at Montgomery, Ala. The first stop in Georgia will be at Columbus, where he will spend a few minutes at noon Saturday. At Macon the next stop, he will remain 40 minutes, coming thence to Atlanta.

On Sunday a conference between Col. Roosevelt and Southern Progressive leaders is scheduled and he will leave at 4:50 o'clock for Chattanooga. It is stated that plans will be discussed to have the ex-President return to Georgia some time in October.

ABBOTTSBURG HIGH SCHOOL

Opened Monday Week Ago, With Specially Bright Prospects

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Abbottsburg, N. C., Sept. 23.—School opened Monday, Sept. 16th, with 81 pupils. Both teachers and pupils are full of determination to do their best for the improvement of the school, and we feel sure that our able and worthy faculty will do their part. Patrons of the school desire to thank Prof. Howard for his work in behalf of the school during the Summer vacation. The school is furnished with maps, charts, globes, etc. A dormitory has been opened for the accommodation of the teachers and boarding students. The school also has one of the best music teachers to be had. Anyone wishing to enter the school need not do anything but come and be convinced that the school is one of the best in the county. Already boarding students have been enrolled.

were there. I was holding a midday meeting and I wanted to get the attention of my audience. I ventured to say to them, 'After what you have been through in the last two days perhaps you would like to know what the public questions of the day are. I feel a good deal that way still. The question of the day is not the division of responsibility, but the measure of the liberty of the people. I am not interested in persons. I do not want to say anything about them and I do not care what they say about me. I simply want to say to them at every point, 'Very true, it may be so, let us grant all that and return to the business; what are you proposing to put more money into the envelopes of the workingman, what are you proposing to do to break up the lines of monopoly in the United States, to set the people free and give them direct access to their government?'

"Mr. Roosevelt himself has spoken of the profits the corporations get as prize money and his objection is that not enough of prize money gets into the pay envelopes. And I quite agree with him. But I want to know how he proposes to get it there. I searched his programme from top to bottom and the only proposal I can find is that there shall be an industrial commission charged with the supervision of the great monopolistic combinations which have been formed under the protection of the tariff, and that the government of the United States shall see to it that these gentlemen who have conquered labor shall be kind to labor.

"I say then, the proposition is this, that there shall be two masters, the great corporations and over them the government of the United States and I ask who is going to be the master of the government of the United States? I don't care how benevolent the master is going to be, I will not live under a master. That was not what America was created for.

"Is America going to be saved because George Washington and Lincoln were great? Don't you know America is safe only because we do not know who the future Presidents of the United States are going to be? I say this with a certain degree of embarrassment, because I am a candidate for the Presidency and I am not going to pretend that I have any sort of confidence that I am a big enough man for the place. But I do feel proud that no rule of blood, no privilege of money picked me out to be a candidate even. It may be a mistake, but you can't blame the system at once, because it is a fine system, where some remote, severe academic school master may become President of the United States. He is not connected at last with the powers that have been and he has even on occasion set himself against the powers that are. Men speculate as to what he might be ignorant or audacious enough to do, but all of that is of the excitement of the Democratic game. We are sports. We are not going to tie us to a particular family or class, we are going to say, 'We have played this game long enough to be perfectly serene about it and take a chance in the game. That is the beauty of Democracy.'"

The Governor will leave here early tomorrow for Princeton, N. J., where he will vote in the Senatorial primaries.

JORDAN PAYS PENALTY

Noted Wife Murderer Electrocuted at Charlestown State Prison

Boston, Mass., Sept. 23.—Chester S. Jordan, sentenced to death for the murder, four years ago at Somerville, of his wife Honorah, whose body he cut up and packed in a trunk, was executed in the electric chair at the Charlestown State prison this morning at 12:14:30 o'clock.

Jordan went to his death calmly and without making any statement.

A suspicious cabman was responsible for the discovery of the murder of Mrs. Chester S. Jordan, for which Jordan was executed this morning. The murder was committed at their apartments in Somerville, September 1st, 1908. During a quarrel with his young wife, an actress, Jordan struck her and knocked her down a stairway. The next day he dismembered her body, placed the head and some other parts in a stove in an unsuccessful attempt to burn them and packed the remainder of the body in a trunk. His actions in driving about the city with the trunk aroused the suspicions of the police.

Jordan was born 33 years ago in Indianapolis, Ind., and while on the stage married Honorah O'Reilly, known in vaudeville as Irene Shandon. He was brought to trial April 10th, 1909, and found guilty of the murder May 4th, 1909. Four days later one of the jury became insane and was committed to an insane asylum. The State Supreme Court refused to grant an appeal for a new trial and Jordan was sentenced to die during the week of March 12th, 1911. A writ of error being granted an appeal from the decision of the State court was taken to the United States Supreme Court but the appeal was denied May 27th, 1912, and nearly four years after the commission of the crime Jordan was sentenced a second time to die.

Columbus, O., Sept. 23.—Columbus held the Philadelphia American League team safe in an exhibition game here today until the ninth inning, when the visitors started a rally and scored four runs, winning 8 to 5. The hitting of Mathes and the fielding of Maggert featured.

E. C. TEACHERS' TRAINING.

Fourth Year of State Institution Begins Today—Outlook Bright.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greenville, N. C., Sept. 23.—Knowing the interest felt, not only here and throughout eastern North Carolina, but also in the State, in the East Carolina Teachers' Training School and that the opening for the fourth year of this institution was next Tuesday, September 24th, we desire to note a few things in respect to this school gotten by a personal visit. Upon arrival we were struck with the busy hum of things as we found every one actively getting ready for the student body on the opening day. Things have already begun to look like business. The success of the school has been phenomenal. This is the beginning of the fourth year and we find that the school has reached its utmost capacity in receiving pupils. It was seen that the demand for entrance on the part of girls would be such this session that the management could make no arrangements for young men, and therefore, they had to be excluded from the dormitories. This left all the available rooms of the entire institution open for girls.

In less thai five weeks from the close of last term every single room in every building had been taken by girls and there are 20 or more applications now on file and rooms for these applicants cannot be furnished. These applicants continue to come in with no prospect of being received.

When the present buildings were erected it was thought that they would be sufficient, probably, for ten years and yet they are not sufficient for the fourth year. The school is full grown now, and can not become larger until there are more dormitories, more recitation rooms, enlarged laundry facilities and more adequate dining room accommodations. This demand so early in the history of the institution shows to us several things as undoubtedly true.

First, there was a demand and a need for such an institution. Second, that it is wise that the school has been rigidly held to its one purpose in its establishment, that is the preparation of teachers for the schools of the State. There ought to be such a school and the work done in such an institution ought to be held to this one purpose. This is what is done here. Third, the management of the school has been unusually wise. President Wright has shown remarkable executive ability and he has had the loyal support of both trustees and faculty in giving this phenomenal success to the school. But for this wise management and the character of the work done in class rooms this school could never have reached its present size and efficiency in so short a time.

We learn that for the coming season the same faculty of the former years will be had with the following exceptions: Miss Barrett will be in charge of the primary methods in place of Miss Dabney, resigned; Miss Hill will have instrumental music in place of Miss Bishop, resigned; and Miss Rankin will be matron instead of Miss Cassidey, who could not return. Miss MacFayden has been added to the faculty as critic teacher.

The enrollment last year reached 595, and would have been larger had there been room. Of this number we learn that at least 585 were already teaching or preparing themselves for teaching. Think what this means to the children of North Carolina? There is an ever increasing demand for prepared and trained teachers throughout the State. It is proper that this demand should increase. This, however, presents the question to the State of the inadequate arrangement now made to keep the supply of trained teachers up to the increased demand. We believe there will be an awakening to the opportunity which the State has and its responsibility to meet this opportunity.

Judging what the future of this school will be when the State makes sufficient appropriation to enable it to receive those who apply for admission, is pleasant to contemplate. Those who are preparing themselves for teachers and those who are now teaching have realized the opportunity there is in this school to get the training they need and when all can be received who apply, the supply of the well equipped teacher will be largely increased in the State, and this means such to the educational progress of the people. North Carolina did a wise thing when it established this school for the purpose of training teachers for the schools of the State. It will be a wiser thing when the Legislature sees to it that every girl and boy who wants this training shall have the opportunity to get it and not be turned away for the want of room.

WILL KEEP " HANDS OFF."

Democratic National Committee Won't Meddle in N. Y. Politics.

New York, Sept. 23.—The Democratic National Campaign Committee will adhere to its policy of "hands off" unless unforseen developments should occur in connection with the nomination of a candidate for the governorship of this State. This in effect was the statement of Acting Chairman McAdoo, of the Democratic National Campaign Committee, as the conclusion of a conference of a committee today, which was called to consider what action, if any, should be taken in the matter of urging the nomination of a progressive Democrat for Governor of New York. The effect upon the National ticket of the renomination of Governor Dix, as proposed by Charles F. Murphy and other leaders, was discussed.

Both Mr. McAdoo and Senator O'Gorman stated that it was not likely that the committee would declare its attitude regarding the selection of the nominee for Governor, Mr. McAdoo saying that that was purely a State matter.

It was learned from authoritative sources that both Senator O'Gorman and Mr. McAdoo plan to go to the Syracuse convention and it was said that unless the candidate selected for the nomination is a strong progressive Democrat Governor Wilson would be asked to take a hand in the matter.

—Among last night's arrivals at The Orton were W. McG. Buck, Mullins, S. C.; W. H. Carr, Kingstree, S. C.; J. C. Mallard and wife, Rose Hill; J. M. Smith, Elkton, and Jacob Thompson, Pittsboro.

which may be offering the value in wiping out the Bubonic Plague, being fatal to rats and rats only in minute quantities, was announced by Dr. Frederick G. Novy, of the University of Michigan. One hundred-millionth part of a cubic centimeter, he said, would kill any rate at once.

In no other profession does the practitioner know so much about the theory of his subject and so little about the material with which he is to work as in teaching, declared Dr. Mary S. Macy, of the New York University, in speaking on instruction in school hygiene. A common mistake today, she said, was to emphasize the psychic side of the child and ignore the physical needs. The hygiene of childhood should be discussed, she asserted, in women's clubs, at meetings and in college courses of study.

The physical standards required of women teachers today are comparable to those in the army and navy, said Dr. Grace N. Kimball, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y. More and more has been demanded year by year of the teacher, she added, and yet the convenience of the teacher is little considered.

Open-air schools not as the exception, but as the rule, were urged by Dr. S. Adolphus Knopf, of New York, who declared that if no better method could be adopted, every window in the school room should be left open.

The social functions of the congress today included two receptions, one at the White House in the afternoon and another at the Pan-American union tonight.

SUED FOR DIVORCE.

(Special to Charlotte Observer.)

Washington, Sept. 21.—Mrs. Mary B. Hooper has brought suit in the District Supreme Court for absolute divorce from her husband, Charles E. Hooper, one of the proprietors of the Hotel Fredonia on H. street, northwest, charging non-support and infidelity, naming as co-respondent Edith North, a trained nurse. Mr. and Mrs. Hooper were married at Asbury Park, N. J., September 11, 1893, and have three sons. Mr. Hooper for two years was proprietor of the New Fayette Hotel at Atlantic City.

In asking for a divorce Mrs. Hooper informed the court that her husband, although he had failed to support her and the children, "made a habit of wearing diamonds to the aggregate value of $700 or $800." Mrs. Hooper came here some time after Mr. Hooper took charge of the Fredonia, but has not lived at the hotel. She will claim that she and the children were cast aside for the North woman.

Edith North, the co-respondent named in the papers filed at the city hall, is said to have nursed in Charlotte. For a number of years Mr. Hooper was proprietor of the Buford Hotel in Charlotte, and a resort hotel at Wrightsville Beach.

Mrs. Hooper is prominently connected in New York and New Jersey. Mr. Hooper was clerking at a hotel in Asbury Park when she married him.

A. S. Cheek, who is a partner of Mr. Hooper, said tonight that Mrs. Hooper's suit for divorce would not be resisted by Hooper. Mrs. Hooper before marriage was a Miss Turner and had an uncle in Congress from New York a few years ago. One of the Hooper boys is 17 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Hooper are both exceedingly well known in Charlotte where they resided for a long period of years. Mr. Hooper was manager of the Buford for six years and was also at one time in charge of the Central. He was president of the Hotel Men's Association and was one of the most popular and capable hotel men in the Carolinas. Last Spring he went to Atlantic City to open up the New Fayette. He also took charge of the New Fredonia in Washington.

Mrs. Hooper was very popular in Charlotte, where she had many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Hooper have two sons, both fine-looking and manly young fellows.

Miss Edith North, who is named in the suit by Mrs. Hooper as co-respondent, was at one time a trained nurse here, coming to Charlotte from Wilmington. She was a native of Pennsylvania and only remained here for a period of months. She left Charlotte about a year ago for the North.

Child Has Diphtheria—Activities of Carolina Club—Cotton Market.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Maxton, N. C., Sept. 23.—Hugh, the ten-year-old son of Dr. J. O. McClellan, who recently came here from West Virginia for the practice of his profession, on Wednesday night developed a case of diphtheria. Antitoxin was administered and he is now well on the way to recovery.

Friday, Carolina Club, an organization of the ladies of the town formed for the advancement of the interests of Carolina College, devoted its time to preparing and getting in readiness the rooms for the reception of the students of this new institution, who are expected to come in next week for the opening of the college, September 25th. A vast improvement was made in appearance and no one need hesitate about things not being ready by that day.

Cotton is being marketed very rapidly. With today's sales the total number of bales sold will run close to 1,500.

Last night Deputy Sheriff W. W. Smith hailed a negro, one Will McLean to ask him about his taxes. When Will saw who had stopped him he started running and did not stop, literally burning the wind, until Maxton was far away. This morning a message came from him asking what was wanted and on being told that it was his tax money, he returned. But Nemesis in the form of a warrant sworn out by a dusky colored maid for the said Will, for an assault on her person, was awaiting him and he is spending the day in the guard house
